The Creighton Way

For the first time since 2007 and just the third time in head coach Jim Flanery's 17 years at the helm for Creighton, the Bluejay women's basketball team did not reach the postseason. In addition one of the most dynamic players to don the white and blue, Audrey Faber, graduated. Faber departed as the program's fifth leading scorer (1,857) and the leader in blocks (160).

This set of circumstances may lead you to think the program is in a rebuild. That would be a gross underestimation of what Flanery and the Bluejay staff have put in place at Creighton.

"It's a little cliché to say our program is about more than winning. We prefer to talk about building a culture and thus a family," noted Flanery. "Every person, every entity and subsequently every team goes through peaks and valleys. It is the response that shows our character."

Flanery and the 2019-20 squad have character in long supply. Consider that the last Bluejay to not graduate from Creighton with a degree came in 2009-10. That was also the last time a player that entered the women's basketball program transferred out.

Since the 2009-10 season the Bluejays have guided 41 athletes across the stage, including seniors Jaylyn Agnew and Olivia Elger who have already earned undergraduate degrees, and have 10 more on their way.

Delivering on the court, however, remains important. During that same span (2010-11 to present) the Bluejays have posted a combined record of 175-117, have appeared in four NCAA Tournaments, claimed a Missouri Valley regular season title (2012-13), a BIG EAST regular season title (2016-17) and reached four WNIT's.

"Our culture is meant to lay the foundation of our program. That allows the coaching staff to hold our players and ourselves accountable to one another," concluded Flanery.

Wings

Returning All-BIG EAST Tournament pick Jaylyn Agnew is expected to lead the Bluejays' offense in 2019-20.

Despite being limited last season by a hand injury, Agnew finished second on the team with 319 points (11.8 ppg). She also led Creighton with 178 rebounds (6.6 rpg) and was tied for the team lead with 86 assists (3.2 apg).

Joining Agnew on the wing will be sophomores Payton Brotzki and Rachael Saunders. The duo combined for 211 points, 128 rebounds and 44 assists over 663 minutes.

Freshman Carly Bachelor is also expected to see time on the wing. Bachelor delivered 1,776 points and 953 rebounds during her high school career.

Guards

A quintet of players will handle the guard roles for the Bluejays, led by senior Olivia Elger as well as juniors Temi Carda and Tatum Rembao.

Elger was Creighton's fourth leading scorer last season with 182 points in 25 contests (7.3 ppg). She also collected 73 rebounds and tallied 43 assists.

Carda finished third for Creighton with 312 points (10.1 ppg). The Minnesota native started 23 games, grabbing 147 rebounds and knocking down 68-of-77 (88.3 percent) from the charity stripe.

Rembao added 149 points (5.5 ppg) and 54 assists, starting 12 of the 27 games she appeared in.

Sophomore Chloe Dworak and freshman Dee Dee Pryor are both expected to push for time. Dworak saw action in 21 games last season. Pryor, meanwhile, was just the second player in Urbandale HS (Iowa) history to score over 1,000 points.

Posts

Sophomore Gracey Grigione as well as freshman Mykel Parham will shoulder the bulk of the minutes down low.

Grigione started 15 games in the middle for the Bluejays last season, while Parham grabbed more than 470 rebounds and 260 blocks in her final two seasons at Apple Valley HS (Minnesota). Creighton will likely be without senior Morgan Turner throughout the season due to an injury.

Creighton dedicated the Ruth Scott Training Center on February 4, 2019.

Creighton dedicated the new Ruth Scott Training Center, known as “The Ruth”, on February 4, 2019 in a ceremony that included Bill and Ruth Scott, Creighton President Fr. Daniel S. Hendrickson, S.J., McCormick Endowed Athletic Director Bruce Rasmussen, head coaches Jim Flanery (WBB) and Kirsten Bernthal Booth (VB), and volleyball student-athlete Megan Ballenger as speakers.

The $5 million training facility is the latest addition to the east campus athletic corridor. Fewer student-athletes will miss practice because of tight gym and classroom schedules, and all Bluejay student-athletes will benefit. Designed primarily for volleyball and women’s basketball, this facility acknowledges the hardworking, talented coaches and student-athletes Creighton hopes to retain.

Aligning with Creighton Athletics’ mission of recruiting, retaining, developing and graduating outstanding student-athletes, this new facility is a vital developmental resource for both programs.

The Ruth provides an alternative 16,109 square-foot space to ensure both programs have ample court time to develop individually and as a team. As the volleyball program’s success continues to expand its season by more than a month, having a designated practice gym will alleviate scheduling challenges, as well as provide ideal practice times for both the volleyball and women’s basketball programs as their competition seasons overlap.

The Ruth Scott Training Center provides space for two full-sized basketball or volleyball courts, six basketball hoops, two automated volleyball nets that lower from the ceiling, state-of-the-art audio and visual equipment to film and review practices, a hydration station and additional storage space.

In recent years, both the Creighton women’s basketball and volleyball programs have achieved incredible success on the national stage. The women’s basketball program reached the second round of the NCAA Tournament in both 2016-17 as well as 2017-18, claiming a win over No. 6 seed Iowa (2017-18).

In 2018, the volleyball program captured its fifth consecutive BIG EAST Conference regular-season and tournament titles. The Bluejays finished the season ranked 13th nationally after hosting the NCAA Tournament First/Second Rounds at D.J. Sokol Arena for the second consecutive season.

This facility also sends a strong national message showing Creighton Athletics’ dedication to women’s athletics, student-athletes and coaches. Construction on the training center was completed in January 2019, with the facility dedicated on February 4, 2019.

The facility was made possible thanks to many generous donors, especially lead donors Ruth and Bill Scott, whose generosity has transformed the entire east campus athletics corridor.

A look at the ceremonial opening of The Ruth.

On Oct. 16, 2007, an important milestone was reached when Creighton broke ground for a new on-campus facility at the northeast corner of 19th and Webster, just north of Michael G. Morrison, S.J., Stadium, thanks to the generous donations of Wayne and Eileen Ryan and family as well as Dave and Peggy Sokol. Funded by private dollars and dedicated on Aug. 28, 2009, the facility is home to Creighton women's basketball and volleyball, hosting its first regular-season basketball game on Nov. 13, 2009, a Bluejay win over Arkansas State.

A 75,000 square-foot facility, the Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Center and D.J. Sokol Arena seats 2,500 fans for sporting events, locker rooms for women's basketball, volleyball, as well as men's & women's soccer. It also houses coaches offices for women's basketball and volleyball as well as the ticket office, an athletic training room, meeting rooms, hospitality functions, and a media workroom. In addition, the arena is used for other campus and community events, including coaching camps & clinics, concerts, speakers and graduations.

The Ryans have been long-time supporters of Creighton University. Wayne Ryan, BS'49, MS'51, chairman and CEO of Streck Laboratories, Inc., began his career teaching at Creighton before pursuing his passion for research that led to the founding of his company. The Ryans' daughter, Connie, serves on Creighton University's Board of Trustees.

David and Peggy Sokol honored their son, David L. Sokol, Jr. "D.J.", who passed in 1999 following a battle with Hodgkin's disease, by naming the gymnasium the D.J. Sokol Arena. David Sokol served as chairman and CEO of MidAmerican Energy Holdings Company and recently served on Creighton University's Board of Trustees.

"Visionary donors like the Ryans and Sokols make our dreams of an even stronger athletics program, championed by intensely loyal fans, more of a reality," said Creighton Athletics Director Bruce Rasmussen. "This Bluejay spirit is a unifying characteristic that enhances the institution's visibility and reputation."

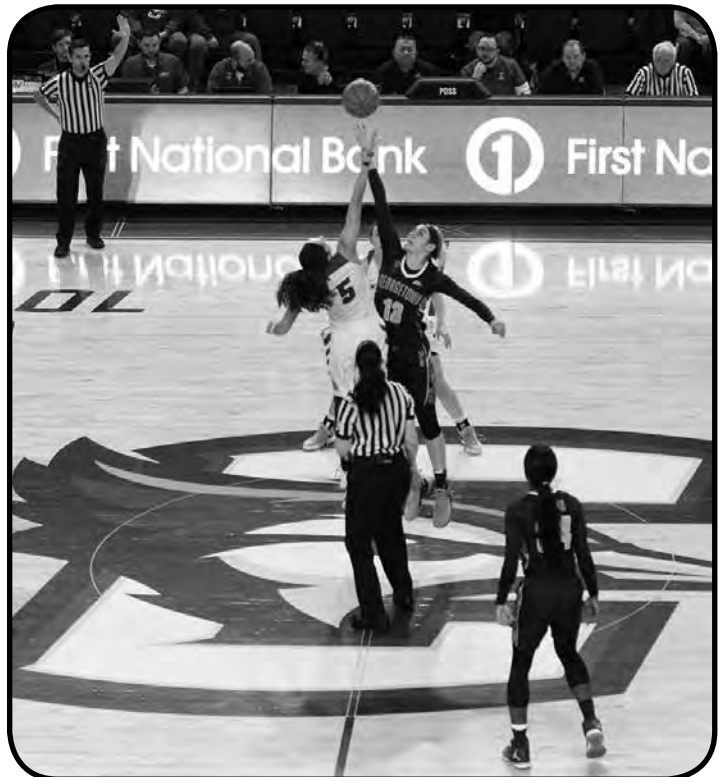

The opening of the Ryan Athletic Center and D.J. Sokol Arena in 2009 marked the first time that a Creighton women's basketball team played a regular-season game on campus since the 1991-92 season.

Officially opened in the spring of 2015, the Jensen Family Lounge was made possible by generous gifts from Ruth and Bill Scott and several other donors. The lounge was designed by Dixon Jensen.

The lounge features a theater-style viewing area for game film, television and movies. It also offers a study area, kitchenette and gaming area for the Creighton women's basketball and volleyball teams.

Creighton's all-time victory leader (327 and counting), Jim Flanery begins his 18th year as Creighton's head coach in 2019-20. Flanery is the only women's basketball coach to guide Creighton to four NCAA Tournaments, reaching the Big Dance in back-to-back seasons in 2012 and 2013 as well as 2017 and 2018. He guided the Bluejays to the NCAA Tournament second round in three of the last seven seasons and claimed the program's first BIG EAST regular-season title in 2017.

Flanery has led the Bluejays to nine 20-win seasons and reached the postseason 14 times, including a stretch of 11 consecutive years from (2008-2018). Creighton has also made two appearances in the WNIT Final Four (2003 & 2004) under Flanery, capturing the 2004 WNIT championship.

Flanery has four conference titles. The BIG EAST regular-season crown in 2017, two Missouri Valley Conference regular-season championships (2003 & 2013), and one MVC Tournament Championship (2012).

Flanery has put his stamp on Bluejay history with two specific traits; a propensity to shoot the three-pointer and the willingness to play any team. Prior to Flanery's tenure, Creighton teams made 200 three-pointers in a season just twice. Including 2018-19, the Bluejays have eclipsed 200 treys in a season during 14 of his 17 campaigns at the helm. The Bluejays set the programs single-season record mark in 2012-13 with the 302 trifectas, the previous record was 260 during in 2003-04.

Flanery's scheduling philosophy has always been to improve, you must face tough opposition. During Flanery's 17 seasons, Creighton has played 37 ranked opponents, including four in 2018-19. One of the more remarkable aspects of Flanery's scheduling has been his ability to bring top teams to play the Bluejays in Omaha, highlighted by a visit from No. 3 Notre Dame during the 2011-12 season. Flanery and the Bluejays also went to Storrs, Conn. to face No. 1 Connecticut during the 2014-15 season.

Creighton has become a national power under Flanery's guidance, annually ranking among the NCAA elite. Near the end of the 2016-17 season the Bluejays climbed into the Associated Press Poll for the first time since 1992, reaching as high as No. 23. The Bluejays were ranked twice in the USA Today/Coaches Poll that season. During the 1991-92 season Creighton appeared during four weeks across both polls.

February 21, 2017 - #25 (USA Today/Coaches Poll)

February 28, 2017 - #23 (USA Today/Coaches Poll)

March 6, 2017 - #23 (AP Poll)

During 2015-16 the Bluejays were fifth in the nation in free throw percentage (78.2%) and 11th in fewest turnovers at 12.3 per game. Creighton finished second in the NCAA in three-pointers per game with 9.2 per contest in 2012-13. The 2008-09 Bluejays ranked eighth in the NCAA with just 13.5 turnovers per game. The Bluejays ranked third in the NCAA in three point field goals per game and 11th in fewest turnovers per game in 2002-03.

Flanery's engaging personality and exciting coaching style have made the Bluejays increasingly visible in the community. The Bluejays moved into D.J. Sokol Arena inside the Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Center prior to the 2009-10 season and have posted an impressive 102-36 record in the venue. Under Flanery, the Bluejays have compiled a 174-59 record at home.

Fans have responded to the success, setting single-game and average attendance records. The top two home crowds and eight of the top-10 crowds in school history have come during Flanery's reign. Fans set a home attendance record in 2002-03 with 1,861 fans per game.

Individuals have also excelled under Flanery's mentoring. During his tenure Bluejay players have earned All-American honors (Marissa Janning in 2014), All-Region (Janning in 2014), a Freshman All-American nod (Janning in 2013), two Preseason All-American honors (Angie Janis in 2005-06 and Christy Neneman in 2005-06), two conference Player of the Year awards (Neneman in 2003 and Janning in 2014), three conference Freshman of the Year honors (Jaylyn Agnew in 2017, Janning in 2013 and Carli Tritz in 2011), a conference Newcomer of the Year (Megan Neuvirth in 2007), three all-conference Defensive Player of the Year honors (Laura Spanheimer in 2003 and 2004 as well as Neuvirth in 2009) and 18 all-conference First Team selections. In addition Spanheimer became the first player in MVC history to be named to the all-defensive team four times. Spanheimer also twice earned WNIT All-Tournament recognition. Christy Neneman was tabbed the 2004 WNIT Most Valuable Player.

Flanery has also guided one of the top academic teams in the nation. During Flanery's 17 seasons the Bluejays have been in the WBCA Academic Top-25 eight times, including a No. 4 ranking in 2010-11, a No. 5 ranking in the 2009-10, a No. 9 in 2017-18 and No. 14 in 2018-19. Eighteen All-MVC First Team Scholar-Athletes have played for Flanery, including two CoSida Academic All-Americans, while both Spanheimer and Dayna Finch earned MVC Prairie Farms Scholar Athlete of the Year recognition.

Flanery became the Bluejays head coach on July 19, 2002. He is the sixth head coach in women's hoops history at Creighton, and just the third since 1980. He succeeded long-time coaching partner, Connie Yori, who he had been on staff with since his graduate assistant days at Creighton in the late 1980s.

Following graduation, Flanery joined current McCormick Endowed Director of Athletics Bruce Rasmussen's Bluejay coaching staff as a graduate assistant for the 1987-88 season. He remained on the Creighton women's basketball staff through the 1989-90 season, joining Yori at Loras College (Iowa) for two seasons prior to the 1990-91 season.

When Yori was tabbed as the head coach at Creighton prior to the 1992-93 season, Flanery once again joined forces to continue the winning tradition set by Rasmussen. As Yori's top assistant, Flanery and the Bluejays notched a 170-115 record in a 10-year span. The Bluejays made two appearances in the NCAA Tournament and earned one trip to the WNIT.

A 1987 Creighton graduate with a BA in philosophy, Flanery was a member of the Bluejay men's basketball team from 1985-87 and was also a member of the Creighton men's golf team. Flanery and his wife Emily have two children, Jackson and Brynn. Flanery is originally from Guthrie Center, Iowa.

Year-By-Year Recap2018-19: 15-16 Overall, 8-10 BIG EAST (T-6th)

Overcoming injuries that limited the Bluejays depth, Creighton was the only team in the BIG EAST to knock off the top three seeds, downing No. 13 Marquette and No. 19 DePaul in the regular season as well as Butler in the BIG EAST Championships. The Bluejays reached the BIG EAST semifinals before bowing out to DePaul, ending the Bluejays run of 11 consecutive postseasons.

2017-18: 19-13 Overall, 11-7 BIG EAST (4th) - NCAA

The 2017-18 was particularly gratifying for Flanery as the Bluejays returned to the NCAA Tournament. The route was far from linear as Creighton was one of eight bubble teams (four in and four out) announced the day before selection Monday. During the show itself, the Bluejays were the final team from the eight announced. Once in the 'Dance', Creighton drew local scrimmage partner Iowa. The Bluejays' upset victory over the Hawkeyes capped a season that saw Flanery capture his 300th win (a 69-54 win over No. 18 Villanova on Dec. 28, 2017). In addition Creighton went 5-1 in overtime contests during the 2017-18 campaign, claiming a four-overtime win at Drake and two victories in double overtime as well.

2016-17: 24-8 Overall, 16-2 BIG EAST (T-1st) - NCAA

Flanery and the Bluejays claimed the program's first BIG EAST regular-season crown in 2016-17, reaching the second round of the NCAA Tournament. Another reason the 2016-17 season was special, the Bluejays cracked the AP Poll as well as the USA Today/Coaches Poll for the first time since 1992, checking in at No. 23 in the March 6 AP Poll. Despite a 1-3 start, the Bluejays posted a 24-8 record including a 76-49 win over Toledo in the first round of the NCAA Tournament.

2015-16: 17-18 Overall, 8-10 BIG EAST (T-5th) - WNIT

Creighton battled through an injury-plagued 2015-16 season to reach the BIG EAST Tournament championship game before falling to St. John's in the final. The three victories in the BIG EAST Tournament allowed the Bluejays to become eligible for WNIT play, where Creighton fell to eventual champion South Dakota.

2014-15: 17-14 Overall, 10-8 BIG EAST (T-5th) - WNIT

The Bluejays second season in the BIG EAST featured five freshmen on the roster. Despite having such a young squad, Creighton reached the WNIT, falling at South Dakota in the opening round.

2013-14: 20-14 Overall, 12-6 BIG EAST (T-3rd) - WNIT

In their first year as a member of the BIG EAST, the Bluejays defeated each of their nine new conference foes at least once. The Bluejays battled their way to the semifinals of the BIG EAST Tournament and closed the season in the second round of the WNIT at South Dakota State.

2012-13: 25-8 Overall, 12-6 MVC (T-1st) - NCAA

The Bluejays posted 25 wins for the first time under Flanery also collecting the third NCAA victory in program history, a 61-56 win over No. 22 Syracuse. Creighton earned just its second NCAA at-large berth in program history, claiming a share of the Missouri Valley Conference regular-season championship. The 2012-13 season also featured a home victory over No. 25 Nebraska (66-57 on Dec. 5) and a 17-point comeback win over BYU at the home of the Utah Jazz. In addition, Creighton claimed a tournament championship in Cancun by downing Miami (Ohio) and South Florida and also posted an undefeated home record in MVC play. Flanery reached two personal milestones in 2012-13, surpassing McCormick Endowed Athletic Director Bruce Rasmussen as Creighton's all-time victory leader with his 197th win on Dec. 21 over Miami (Ohio) and claiming his 200th win on Jan. 5 at Southern Illinois.

2011-12: 20-13 Overall, 11-7 MVC (4th) - NCAA

The Bluejays delivered an impressive effort against No. 14 St. John's in the 2012 NCAA Tournament. Despite falling to the Red Storm, 69-67, Creighton forced its future BIG EAST Conference rival into a last-second dash to the basket and a tear-drop bucket to secure the win. The Bluejays posted wins in eight of their final 10 games, earning Creighton's first NCAA Tournament appearance under Flanery with a run to the MVC Tournament Championship featuring wins over Northern Iowa, Missouri State and Drake in the final.

2010-11: 18-13 Overall, 11-7 MVC (T-2nd) - WNIT

Powered by an 8-1 home record in MVC play, the Bluejays played their way into a crowded three-way tie for second. Tiebreakers, however, forced the Bluejays into the No. 4 seed and a first round loss to Wichita State. Creighton also dropped the opening game in the WNIT at Northwestern.

2009-10: 21-11 Overall, 13-5 MVC (2nd) - WNIT

The Bluejays recorded their third straight 20-win season, reaching their second straight MVC Tournament Final and third in a four-year span. Creighton, however, suffered a one-point setback to Northern Iowa and fell to Kansas in the WNIT Second Round.

2008-09: 22-12 Overall, 14-4 MVC (2nd) - WNIT

Creighton closed the season winning 20 of their final 26 games after a 2-6 start to the year. The Bluejays put together a school-record 11 straight MVC wins (Jan. 8 - Feb. 14), but fell 47-45 to Evansville in the MVC Final. Creighton downed UC Riverside by double-digits in the WNIT first round, but fell at Kansas in the second round.

2007-08: 21-12 Overall, 12-6 MVC (4th) - WNIT

Flanery and the Bluejays fell one win short of a shared MVC regular-season title, advancing to the WNIT. Their 21-12 record marked an eight-win improvement - the 15th-best turnaround in the nation that year. Flanery earned his 100th head coaching victory against Indiana State on Jan. 31, 2008. The Bluejays followed that victory by topping No. 24 Illinois State on the Redbirds' home court on Feb. 2.

2006-07: 13-19 Overall, 8-10 MVC (6th)

The highlight of the 2006-07 campaign came in a run to the MVC Finals as the Bluejays upset Indiana State and Illinois State to set up a matchup with Drake. Despite forcing overtime, Creighton fell to the Bulldogs by one point, 65-64.

2005-06: 8-21 Overall, 5-13 MVC (T-9th)

After opening MVC play 4-0, the Bluejays fell on hard times with 13 straight setbacks. A season-ending win over Northern Iowa propelled Creighton to a opening round win over Southern Illinois in the MVC Tournament.

2004-05: 19-10 Overall, 13-5 MVC (T-2nd) - WNIT

Flanery engineered 19 wins and a third straight invite to the WNIT. Creighton went 3-0 against Big 12 teams, downing Nebraska, Kansas and Colorado, and put together an eight-game winning streak during the heart of the season.

2004-05: 24-9 Overall, 15-3 MVC (2nd) - WNIT Champions

Flanery and the Bluejays concluded the 2003-04 season by claiming the first national postseason tournament title in school history. Their 5-0 run through the postseason was capped by a 73-52 rout of UNLV at the Omaha Civic Auditorium. The Bluejays became the first team from the MVC to win the WNIT. Flanery's team set a then-WNIT record by making 44 three-point field goals, while shooting 89.9 percent (71-for-79) from the free throw line in the event.

2002-03: 24-9 Overall, 13-5 MVC (T-1st) - WNIT

Flanery posted the best rookie season by a head coach in school and MVC history, leading Creighton to its second consecutive Valley regular-season title and a WNIT semifinal appearance. His 24 wins surpassed his predecessor, Connie Yori, for the most successful rookie coaching campaign in school history. His win total also made him the most successful first-year coach in conference history, topping Lisa Stone's 23 wins at Drake in 2000-01. He went on to tie Stone, following the 2003-04 season, for the best two-year start in league history, with 48 victories.

Saunsoci's Coaching Résumé Creighton Assistant Coach, 2013-present

Midland University Assistant Coach, 2012-13
Benson (Neb.) High School Assistant Coach, 2010-11

Saunsoci's Playing Résumé

Creighton, 2005-10
2009 All-MVC Second Team
1,098 Career Points

After a stellar playing career with Creighton from 2005-10, Chevelle (Herring) Saunsoci returned to the Bluejay bench in 2013 as an assistant coach. She shares responsibilities for recruiting as well as on-court work with the guards.

During Saunsoci's time on the bench the Bluejays have made three trips to the NCAA Tournament (2013, 2017 and 2018), advancing to the Second Round each time.

Over the past three seasons, Saunsoci has specifically worked with Jaylyn Agnew, helping the Kansas native earn the BIG EAST Freshman of the Year honor in 2017 and an All-BIG EAST Tournament Team selection in 2019.

Before returning to Creighton, Saunsoci served as an assistant coach at Midland University in 2012-13. Despite being with the Warriors for just one season, Saunsoci helped Midland improve its record by 33 percent, moving from nine to 12 victories.

Prior to Midland, Saunsoci coached at Benson High School (2010-11) and with the Omaha Crusaders AAU team (2011). In addition, Saunsoci led the South Dakota Attack, an Elite AAU team, during the summer of 2013.

A three-year starter for Creighton, Saunsoci played her entire tenure under Flanery's direction. She closed her career with 1,098 points, 254 assists and 119 steals.

Following her junior season, Saunsoci was an All-Missouri Valley Conference Second Team selection as she led Creighton with 441 points. She also earned a spot on the 2010 MVC All-Tournament Team, helping the Bluejays advance to the championship game.

Saunsoci graduated from Creighton with a bachelor's degree in public relations in 2010. During the summer of 2017, Chevelle married Eddie Saunsoci. The couple welcomed daughter, K'Ali Asha, during the fall of 2019.

Sayavongchanh's Playing Résumé

Drake, 2002-06
 Three-time MVC All-Defensive Team
 1,129 Career Points and 266 Steals

A 12-year coaching veteran, Sayavongchanh joined the Bluejays prior to the 2015-16 season. Linda is the recruiting coordinator for Creighton. Throughout her time as a Bluejay, Sayavongchanh has worked with guards, combo players and will work specifically with forwards in 2019-20.

During her four seasons on the Bluejay bench, Sayavongchanh helped Creighton reach consecutive NCAA Tournaments in 2017 and 2018, advancing to the Second Round of the Dance in both seasons. In addition, Sayavongchanh was instrumental in helping Creighton claim the BIG EAST title in 2017 with a 16-2 mark in conference play.

Before coming to Creighton, Sayavongchanh spent two years on the sidelines for the Saint Louis Billikens (2013-15) and also spent time on the bench for North Dakota (2012-13) as well as Drake (2009-12). She began her career as a graduate assistant at Minnesota-Duluth (2007-09).

A standout athlete, Sayavongchanh starred at Drake from 2002-06. A three-time All-Missouri Valley Conference selection, Sayavongchanh finished her career with 1,129 points and was named to the MVC All-Defensive team three times. She closed her career second in steals for the Bulldogs with 266, including 105 in 2003-04.

During her tenure at Drake, Sayavongchanh was 5-4 against the Bluejays. Amongst those battles was the 2005 MVC Tournament title game that saw Sayavongchanh dish out a team-high six assists and score 15 points to lead Drake to a 61-44 win and an NCAA Tournament appearance.

A star at Lincoln High School in Des Moines, Iowa, Sayavongchanh is a member of the school's Hall of Fame as well as the Iowa Girls High School Athletic Union Hall of Fame.

Sayavongchanh holds a bachelor's degree in elementary education from Drake (2007) and earned a master's degree in education at Minnesota-Duluth in 2009. She and longtime boyfriend Joe Konrad (pictured below) reside in Omaha.

Berger's Coaching Résumé
Creighton Assistant Coach, 2017 - present
 Creighton Video Coordinator, 2016-17
 Creighton Graduate Manager, 2014-16

Berger's Playing Résumé
 Creighton, 2010-14
 2011-12 All-MVC First Team
 2012 MVC Tournament MVP
 2011 MVC Freshman of the Year
 1,041 Career Points

Back for her sixth season on the Bluejay bench, Carli has gracefully transitioned from a graduate assistant (2014-2016), to a video coordinator (2016-17) and into her third season as a Bluejay assistant coach role.

Berger has played a significant role in the Bluejays last four trips to the NCAA Tournament, twice as a player (2012 and 2013) and twice more as a coach (2017 and 2018).

One of the most dynamic players to don a Creighton women's basketball uniform, Berger has been as versatile as a staff member as she was on the court. Serving as a graduate assistant during her first two years on staff she took on a portion of the Director of Operations role while Jenny Vickers was out on maternity leave during the 2014-15 season. The following season Berger moved into a video coordinator role, handling all film exchange and setup for the coaching staff.

During her playing days, Berger's best performance as a Bluejay came when her team needed it the most. During the 2012 MVC Tournament Berger was named Tournament MVP, delivering a career-high 29 points in the Bluejays' semifinal win over Missouri State. One night later in the final against Drake, Berger supplied 19 points to guide Creighton to its first NCAA Tournament appearance under Jim Flanery.

Carli closed her sophomore season with All-MVC First Team honors. She was named MVC Tournament MVP after averaging 19.7 points, 7.7 rebounds, 4.0 assists and 2.3 steals per game. Berger set Creighton MVC Tournament records by making 20 and attempting 26 free throws during the tournament. She was the highest scoring sophomore in the MVC (14.4 ppg) and the first sophomore to lead the Bluejays in scoring since MVC Player of the Year Christy Neneman in 2001-02.

Forced to end her playing career (with the exception of a brief appearance on senior night) prior to the 2013-14 season due to chronic knee pain, Berger recorded 1,041 points over 97 games.

"Getting hurt really opened my eye to the other side of sports. I enjoy the impact you can have on another person's life," said Berger. "I have great respect for this program, from the coaching staff to the players."

Berger earned her a bachelor's degree in communications from Creighton in 2014. Two years later she earned a master's degree in leadership also at Creighton.

The former Carli Tritz married Nate Berger during the summer of 2019.

Vickers' Playing Résumé

Creighton, 1999-03
CoSIDA Academic All-District VII Second Team

Jenny Vickers returns for her 16th season on the Creighton women's basketball staff, including her seventh season as the Director of Basketball Operations. Vickers served as an assistant coach for the Bluejays from 2006-13 and was the graduate manager for two seasons (2004-06).

Vickers' responsibilities include coordinating camps, coordinating travel, marketing the team and setting up community outreach.

Her impact on the Creighton program has been impressive. Vickers coached forwards Megan Neuirth and Sam Schuett helping the duo to impressive freshmen campaigns in 2006-07. Neuirth led the team and Missouri Valley Conference in steals, topped the team in rebounding and earned league Newcomer of the Year honors. Schuett, meanwhile, led the Bluejays in three-point shooting and earned MVC All-Freshman Team recognition. Neuirth, the 2008-09 MVC Defensive Player of the Year, had an outstanding career, finishing with more than 1,200 points and a school-record 929 career rebounds. Both Neuirth and Schuett earned All-MVC First Team honors in 2009-10.

The former Jenny Burns was a forward for the Bluejays from 1999 through 2003. Prior to returning to the Bluejay bench, Vickers spent the 2003-04 season as an intern in the Creighton athletics department working with both marketing and ticketing.

The Minnetonka, Minn., native was a starter on Creighton's back-to-back Missouri Valley Conference regular-season championship teams in 2001-02 and 2002-03. She was also major contributor to Creighton's 2002 NCAA Tournament team and 2003 WNIT Final Four squad.

Vickers was twice named to the MVC Scholar-Athlete First Team and earned CoSIDA Academic All-District VII Second Team accolades as a senior while graduating with a 3.96 grade-point average. She led the Bluejays in blocked shots as a senior and finished her career ranked in the top-10 in Creighton career blocked shots. Despite battling injuries during her first two seasons, she ranked eighth in games played when she finished her career.

Vickers earned bachelor of arts degrees in history and secondary education in December 2003. She and her husband, Steve, reside in Omaha and have three children, Connor, Sam and Walter.

Yori's Coaching Résumé Program Advisor for Women's Basketball, 2018-present

Nebraska Head Coach, 2002-16
Creighton Head Coach, 1992-02
Loras Head Coach, 1990-92
Creighton Assistant Coach, 1986-89

Yori's Playing Résumé

Creighton, 1982-86
Creighton Athletics Hall of Fame Inductee, 1992

Former Bluejay head coach Connie Yori rejoined the Creighton Women's Basketball staff as the Program Advisor in January of 2018. Rejoining the Creighton athletic staff for the first time since 2002, Yori works with the Bluejay women's basketball staff to create and develop game strategy, scouting Creighton's opponents and participating in on-campus recruiting.

"Bringing Connie on staff has had tremendous value for our program. Day-to-day she adds unique experience as a former head coach to break down game film and ask questions from a different perspective," said Flanery. "In addition, she is someone who understands our program from the inside, but has also been outside the program for many years. She is able to give us an idea of where we can improve."

One the most decorated women's basketball coaches in the state of Nebraska, Yori's head coaching career spanned 26 seasons at Loras College (1990-92), Creighton (1992-2002) and Nebraska (2002-16). She compiled a record of 475-306 during her career, including a 170-115 mark at the helm for the Bluejays.

Yori guided nine squads to the NCAA Tournament, including runs to the Sweet 16 in 2010 and 2013. The 2010 National Coach of the Year (Kay Yow, Associated Press, USBWA and Naismith), Yori led her team to a 29-0 regular season record. She also collected Coach of the Year honors in the Missouri Valley (2002), the Big 12 (2010) and the Big Ten (2013 & 2014).

Beyond her storied coaching career, Yori was one of Creighton's greatest on the court. A Creighton Athletics Hall of Fame inductee in 1992, Yori is one of just two Creighton players to have their number hang in the rafters of D.J. Sokol Arena. She graduated in 1986 as Creighton's leading scorer with 2,010 points, a number that still ranks third all-time. She also remains in the Bluejays' top-10 in scoring average (1st - 20.3 ppg), rebounding (8th - 746), assists (7th - 399), steals (2nd - 292), field goals made (2nd - 797), field goal percentage (5th - 54.2) and free throws made (2nd - 416).

Yori's coaching career began immediately after her playing career concluded, serving as Creighton's assistant coach from 1986-89.

"I'm so proud to be a Creighton alum and always have been. I spent 17 years here and Creighton is where my roots are," said Yori. "It was hard to leave here and I am happy to be back helping my alma mater. This is a minor role in a really good program and it has been fun to rejoin the Creighton family."

"Connie is a really good friend of mine and has been for 30 years. In many ways she helped pave my way into coaching and into this position, so it's neat to have her back," said Flanery. "I think Connie's return will benefit our players, the rest of the staff as well as our department as a whole. It's even more special for me, considering our personal relationship."

Schmidt's Résumé

Creighton Associate Head Coach of Athletic Performance, 2012-present

South Dakota State, Assistant Coach of Strength and Conditioning, 2010-12
 South Dakota State, Graduate Assistant (Strength and Conditioning), 2008-10

Brad Schmidt is in his sixth season as the primary contact for the women's basketball squad. Schmidt's role was refined to volleyball, women's basketball and baseball in the fall of 2014. Each of Schmidt's teams claimed the BIG EAST regular-season championship during the 2016-17 academic year and all three squads have reached the NCAA Tournament over the past two years.

A graduate of Iowa State in 2008, Schmidt served as the assistant strength and conditioning coach at South Dakota State for two years before taking the same position at Creighton in January of 2012. During his time with the Jackrabbits, Brad earned his master's at SDSU in 2010.

Schmidt has worked with a variety of teams, including swimming, track, cross country, soccer and basketball. Schmidt is a certified strength and conditioning specialist through the National Strength and Conditioning Association, as well as a certified sports performance coach by USA Weightlifting. He and his wife, Vanessa, reside in Omaha with their two children, Ava and Peter.

She crossed double-figures in 15 contests to finish the season with a combined 312 points, 147 rebounds and 61 assists ... Carda collected a game-high 20 points against No. 24 Drake on Nov. 28 ... Temí came through in the clutch for Creighton with 10 of her 18 points in the final three minutes of the Bluejays' victory over South Florida on Dec. 20 ... Following the Florida Sunshine Classic, Carda and Audrey Faber were named to the All-Tournament Team ... Temí grabbed her second career double-double with 10 points and 10 rebounds against Villanova on Jan. 4 ... Carda set a new career-high with 22 points, going 9-of-13 from the field against St. John's on Jan. 13 in the Bluejays' 65-63 victory ... She scored in double-figures in five consecutive games from Feb. 15 to March 3, posting 12 points at Butler, 18 points at Xavier, 14 points at Providence and 11 against No. 13 Marquette before collecting 15 against DePaul.

2017-18 (Freshman)

Temí capped her first season as a Bluejay by earning a spot on the BIG EAST All-Freshman Team ... She appeared in each of Creighton's 32 games, collecting one start and closing the season with 223 points as well as 42 assists ... On the court in crunch time of her opening game as a Bluejay, Carda delivered two buckets in the closing minutes to secure Creighton's 66-61 win over Wichita State on Nov. 10 ... Temí crossed double-figures with a team-high 15 points against South Dakota on Nov. 14, all coming in the second-half ... Battling the stomach flu during Creighton's trip to Las Vegas, Temí caught fire from long range against No. 5 UCLA with a career-high four treys ... Carda picked up her first career double-double with 16 points and 10 rebounds against Drake on Dec. 3 ... Temí earned the first start of her career, scoring eight points and grabbing three rebounds against No. 13 Florida State on Dec. 21 ... Carda was perfect from the floor, hitting all three field goals and both free throws to notch 10 points in Creighton's win over Providence on Jan. 13 ... Carda was critical with 13 points, including a dagger trey to close the third quarter at Xavier on Jan. 22 ... Asked to handle the ball more at DePaul, Carda responded with 12 points and two turnovers against the Blue Demons on Feb. 2 ... Carda won BIG EAST Freshman of the Week after a 13 point, five rebound performance against Marquette ... Temí's 17 points against Providence set a new season-high for Carda, also helping her earn back-to-back BIG EAST Freshman of the Week awards.

Lakeville North High School

Continuing a long line of talent from Minnesota, Carda was a three-time All-State selection ... A five-time All-South Suburban Conference selection, Temí was a member of the Lakeville North varsity squad since her eighth grade season ... Carda closed her career at Lakeville with over 1,500 points and more than 200 assists ... A two-time captain for the Panthers, Carda led Lakeville North to a fourth place finish at the state tournament as a senior and a third place finish during her sophomore year ... In addition, Temí was a Miss Minnesota Basketball finalist as a senior ... One of the most well-rounded athletes, Carda was a Miss Minnesota soccer nominee as a senior and also lettered in track.

Through the first six years in its configuration of 10 outstanding and nationally acclaimed institutions, the BIG EAST Conference has established itself as one of the nation's exceptional Conferences and a leader in collegiate athletics.

Dynamic leadership has been a staple of the BIG EAST throughout its history. The conference turned "40" on May, 29, 2019, and has always taken a proactive role on many fronts. The 2018-19 academic year proved no different.

The BIG EAST secured its agreement with Madison Square Garden to assure the league will play its men's basketball tournament at the World's Most Famous Arena for the next 10 years.

The University of Connecticut, a member of the conference from 1979 to 2013, was readmitted to the BIG EAST. UConn, which will begin competing in the league again in 2020-21, brings a rich history of academic and athletic excellence. The Huskies' women's basketball program won eight of its 11 national championships as a BIG EAST member. The men's team won three national titles under the BIG EAST umbrella and an additional crown in 2014.

The BIG EAST Conference was chosen by USA Basketball to represent the United States at the 2019 Pan American Games in Lima, Peru. It marked the first time a team from a single Division I conference represented the U.S. in the sport of men's basketball in Pan American Games competition. The team exceeded expectations by winning a bronze medal.

In the arena and on the playing fields, the BIG EAST has produced 11 national champions over the past six academic years. Six BIG EAST teams have captured national titles, including two in men's basketball. BIG EAST student-athletes also have won national championships in five individual events.

In the classroom, a record 67 BIG EAST athletic programs were recognized in 2018-19 by the NCAA with Public Recognition Awards for outstanding academic achievement in the previous academic year. By percentage, Villanova led all schools nationally for a second straight year with 77 percent of its squads receiving recognition. BIG EAST schools also produced seven CoSIDA Academic All-Americans.

Val Ackerman, who previously served as founding President of the WNBA, President of USA Basketball and U.S. representative to the International Basketball Federation (FIBA), was named the BIG EAST's fifth Commissioner in 2013. Under her leadership, the BIG EAST has maintained its reputation for achievement at the highest levels and has continued to be influential on the national collegiate landscape, with numerous conference and campus administrators currently serving on important NCAA committees. Ackerman is one of the few sports executives who has held leadership positions in both men's and women's sports at the collegiate, professional, national team and international level.

In 2013, the BIG EAST began a new era by returning to its basketball-centric heritage. The league's 10 member schools—Butler, Creighton, DePaul, Georgetown, Marquette, Providence, St. John's, Seton Hall, Villanova, and Xavier—adhere to an unwavering commitment to academic integrity, athletic excellence and community service.

In December of 2012, DePaul, Georgetown, Marquette, Providence, St. John's, Seton Hall and Villanova, announced their intention to separate from the conference's FBS football-playing schools and form an independent association. The seven schools reached an agreement to retain the BIG EAST name and assume the conference's long-term pact with Madison Square Garden to host the BIG EAST Men's Basketball Tournament. The schools also announced the addition of three distinguished institutions — Butler, Creighton and Xavier — and forged a landmark, long-term broadcast partnership with FOX Sports. The BIG EAST moved its headquarters from its original location in Providence, R.I., to midtown Manhattan in New York City. The new era officially began on July 1, 2013.

The BIG EAST has been lauded as a leader in innovative concepts, particularly television, and that reputation continues with the conference's relationship with FOX Sports. The BIG EAST has enjoyed a successful multi-year partnership with FOX Sports and its national cable network FS1. FOX's comprehensive coverage of BIG EAST men's basketball includes the broadcast of all regular-season games on FOX, FS1, FS2 or FOX Regional Networks, as well as the BIG EAST Tournament at Madison Square Garden, college basketball's longest-running postseason conference tourney held at the same venue.

BIG EAST institutions are located in seven of the nation's 36 largest media markets, including New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, Washington, D.C., Indianapolis, Milwaukee and Cincinnati.

FOX Sports platforms carry complete coverage of women's basketball regular-season play and the BIG EAST Women's Basketball Tournament. Every Olympic sport championship is also carried on a network or digital platform.

The BIG EAST has also increased the visibility of its school programs with the BIG EAST Digital Network (BEDN). In 2014-15, the league became the first collegiate conference to be hosted on the FOX Sports mobile platform. For the fifth straight year, BEDN aired 225 live events with an emphasis on women's basketball, soccer and Olympic sport regular-season and championship events.

Founded in 1979 by Dave Gavitt, the former Providence men's basketball coach and athletic director, the BIG EAST Conference became a reality in May of 1979. Providence, St. John's, Georgetown, Syracuse, Seton Hall, Connecticut and Boston College formed the original seven-school alliance, and the conference became an immediate national power in men's basketball. While the composition of the BIG EAST has evolved, the focus of its schools has not changed, reflecting a tradition of emphasizing academic strength and fair play.

To complement its athletic successes, the conference launched BIG EAST Serves in 2014 to align with the service missions of the member institutions. Initiatives housed under the BIG EAST Serves umbrella, the BIG EAST Career Consortium and the national partnership with the It's On Us campaign against campus sexual assaults, reflect the conference's commitment to developing the complete BIG EAST student-athlete and making a positive contribution to campus communities and the conference's headquarters in New York. The BIG EAST annually hosts a Well Being Forum to help provide institutional personnel with information, insights and basic training so they can better support the mental and physical health of their student-athletes.

The BIG EAST and Commissioner Ackerman have taken a leadership role in Sport at the Service of Humanity, an initiative created by the Vatican's Pontifical Council for Culture to focus on how sport and faith can drive positive social change. Ackerman was a delegate at the inaugural Vatican conference and has served on an advisory committee to develop the framework and content.

The BIG EAST hosts Freshmen Fundamentals, a unique program designed to assist men's basketball student-athletes in the transition from high school to college and the elite level of BIG EAST basketball. The league hosts Transition Game for women's basketball, which assists women's basketball student-athletes in the transition from college player to emerging professional on and off the court.

BIG EAST institutions boast high graduation rates for their student-athletes, and the league has always been able to boast that many of its best athletes are also its best students. Creighton volleyball's Taryn Kloth and Marquette basketball's Allazia Blockton were the conference nominees for the 2019 NCAA Woman of the Year award.

The conference, which crowns champions in 22 sports, had league teams earn a total of 18 NCAA team berths and 23 individual NCAA invitations in 2018-19. In men's basketball, all 10 teams participated in the postseason for the first time in conference history. Men's basketball teams have earned 32 NCAA invitations in six years, averaging 5.3 per season.

Current BIG EAST men's basketball programs have enjoyed extraordinary success. Villanova won NCAA Championships in 2018, 2016 and 1985. Georgetown and Marquette also have won the national title, while Butler, DePaul, Providence, St. John's and Seton Hall have all made the Final Four. The BIG EAST sent three men's basketball teams in the 1985 Final Four — Georgetown, St. John's and Villanova—the only time this has occurred in NCAA history. Over the past 16 years, Butler, Georgetown, Marquette and Villanova have reached the Final Four, with Villanova making three trips and Butler two. Xavier has advanced to the Elite Eight three times.

The BIG EAST has achieved recent success in other sports as well. A BIG EAST team has won the NCAA women's cross country championship four of the last 10 years (Villanova twice, Providence and Georgetown), with one runner-up finish (Providence). Creighton men's soccer has advanced to the NCAA College Cup twice in the last six seasons and Providence made it in 2014. Georgetown's women's soccer team reached the College Cup in 2018 and 2016. An affiliate member in field hockey, Connecticut has won three national championships in six years. Denver, as affiliate member in men's lacrosse, won the NCAA crown in 2015.

In the 40 years since the original league opened its doors, BIG EAST teams have won 41 national championships in eight different sports with 145 student-athletes winning individual national titles in the league's history.

1991-92 Creighton Bluejays
28-4 Overall • 13-1 WAC (1st)

The first women's basketball NCAA Tournament team at Creighton proved it belonged by defeating Long Beach State in front of 3,502 fans at the Omaha Civic Auditorium. The explosive Creighton offense led the NCAA in both field goal (.521) and three-point field goal percentage (.452), while establishing a school-record with 80.7 points per game.

Creighton Hall of Famer Kathy Halligan led five Bluejays averaging double figures with 16 points per contest. Halligan ended her record-setting career by being named the Western Athletic Conference MVP, and as Creighton's all-time leader with 2,159 points, 309 three-point field goals and a .454 three-point field goal percentage (including a school record .554 three-point percentage as a senior).

Melissa Sanford

The Bluejays concluded their two-year affiliation with the WAC, winning both the regular-season and tournament titles, establishing a school record 16-game winning streak (also notching another 12-game streak) and recording a 15-0 mark at home. Shannon Struby (First Team) and Melissa Sanford (Second Team) both earned All-WAC honors, while Bruce Rasmussen was named the WAC Coach of the Year in his final year on the sidelines.

Kris Kugel led four Creighton players in double figures as the Bluejays topped Long Beach State for a win in their first NCAA Tournament game. Kugel poured in a team-best 27 points while adding 10 rebounds for a double-double, while Becky Strathman also notched a double-dime with 11 points and 10 assists along with six steals for the Bluejays. CU closed the first half on an 11-2 run to own a 39-28 lead at the half. Long Beach State scored the first six points of the second half to close within five of the Bluejays, but CU responded with a 13-2 run to take control of the game. The Bluejays led by as many as 18 in the second half, when Kathy Halligan's three-pointer put CU up 66-48 with seven minutes to play. Halligan scored 19 points and added nine boards while shooting 5-of-8 from three-point range in the final home game of her Hall of Fame career. Melissa Sanford also added nine points and eight assists in the winning effort.

The Bluejays' bid to reach the Sweet 16 fell just two points short, as they lost a 75-74 heartbreaker at Stephen F. Austin. CU held a 74-73 lead with 10 seconds to play after Kathy Halligan completed an old-fashioned three-point play. The Ladyjacks answered with a basket from Lynn Corn with two seconds on the clock to end the Bluejays' season. CU trailed 62-51 with 8:21 to play when the Bluejays put together a 23-11 run to take the late one-point lead, only to fall in the final seconds. The Jays were led by Kris Kugel's 21 points and seven rebounds. Halligan wrapped up her career with 19 points on 5-of-9 shooting from long range, finishing with school records of 2,159 points and 309 three-pointers. Melissa Sanford, also playing in her final game, scored 14 points for the Jays, while Becky Strathman added seven assists. Creighton trailed SFA by nine at halftime and went down by as many as 17 early in the second half before staging the late comeback. The WAC champions finished with a school-record 28 wins.

1993-94 Creighton Bluejays
24-7 Overall • 14-2 MVC (2nd)

The 1993-94 Bluejays were led by First Team All-MVC performers, Becky Flynn and Kris Kugel. The Bluejays started the season by winning 15 of their first 17 contests, including a 10-game winning streak. The Bluejays' 106-44 win over Delaware on Dec. 30 remains the largest margin of victory (62) in school history.

Flynn registered the first triple-double in Creighton history during the winning streak. On Jan. 11, the forward scored 13 points, grabbed 11 rebounds and registered 12 assists in a 76-54 win over Missouri. Flynn earned MVC Defensive Player of the Year honors while establishing a school record with 105 steals, and Holly Sivesind was tabbed the MVC Freshman of the Year.

Kugel and Jenny Olson joined Flynn in averaging double figures, while finishing one-two, respectively, in field goal percentage in The Valley. Kugel ranked sixth in the NCAA with her .632 field goal percentage. The Jays went on the road in the NCAA Tournament and defeated Bowling Green, 84-73, before ending their season with a second-round loss at Texas Tech.

March 16, 1994
Anderson Arena
Bowling Green, Ohio

The Bluejays advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament by posting an 84-73 victory over seventh-seeded Bowling Green, handing the Falcons their first home loss of the season while snapping BG's 20-game winning streak. The Jays led by as many as 13 against the 24th-ranked Falcons, before BG claimed a three-point lead with just over six minutes to play. The Bluejays closed the game on a 31-17 run over the final six minutes, guided by Missy Miller's outside shooting. Miller, who made 5-of-9 three-pointers, drained three straight treys starting with 4:37 remaining to give the Bluejays a lead they would not relinquish. She finished with 15 points in 17 minutes off the bench. Jenny Olson came off the bench to drain 8-of-9 field goals and lead five Bluejays in double-figures with 18 points.

Shannon Struby delivered a double-double in the Jays' 84-73 win at No. 24 Bowling Green.

Becky Flynn combined for 30 points in Creighton's two NCAA Tournament contests to lead the Jays.

March 19, 1994
Municipal Coliseum
Lubbock, Texas

Defending national champion, second-seeded and ninth-ranked Texas Tech used surprising performances by reserves Janice Farris, Nikki Heath and Melinda White to end the Bluejays' season in the second round of the NCAA Tournament. The Lady Raider trio combined for 29 points to complement All-American Connie Robinson's game-high 17 points. Creighton failed to capitalize on the late first-half absences of Tech's top two scorers - Michi Atkins missed the final 10 minutes of the half with a sprained ankle and Robinson didn't play the final six minutes because of foul trouble, but Creighton trailed 34-33 at the half. Robinson scored 14 of her 17 points in the second half and Atkins scored eight points and logged five rebounds in the second half. Becky Flynn led the Jays with 16 points, while Kris Kugel finished the season ranked sixth in the NCAA with a .632 field goal percentage.

24-7 Overall • 16-2 MVC (1st)

The Bluejays captured their first Missouri Valley Conference regular-season and tournament titles, while reaching the 20-win plateau for the first time since 1993-94. Creighton used their three-point shooting to top opponents, ranking fifth in the NCAA in three-point field goals per game (8.0). Sophomore Dayna Finch drained 91 three-pointers, to rank ninth in the NCAA. Fellow sophomore Christy Neneman joined Missouri State's Jackie Stiles (1999) as the second sophomore in conference history to earn Player of the Year recognition. Neneman was also tabbed the tournament MVP after scoring 39 points against Drake in the championship game. Finch and freshman Laura Spanheimer earned Honorable Mention MVC honors, while Spanheimer also appeared on the All-Freshman and All-Defensive teams. The Bluejays put together a 10-game winning streak during their 16-2 run through the MVC and finished the season by winning 10 consecutive home games (9-0 MVC). Connie Yori was named the MVC Coach of the Year in her final season with the Bluejays. Creighton traveled to State College, Pa., (Penn State) to take on No. 23 Florida International as the 12th-seed in the Mideast Region. Appearing in their first NCAA tournament game since 1994, the Jays fell 73-58.

20-13 Overall • 11-7 MVC (4th)

Entering the Missouri Valley Tournament as the fourth seed, the Bluejays captured their first MVC Tournament championship under head coach Jim Flanery. The Bluejays did so by defeating the two teams, Missouri State and Drake, that Creighton had not gotten past in the regular-season. Creighton opened the MVC Tournament with a 53-46 win over Northern Iowa. The following day belonged to sophomore Carli Tritz as she punctuated the 56-47 win over Missouri State with 27 of her 29 points in the second half, including a stretch of 17 straight. The MVC championships saw Creighton take down the MVC Player of the Year, Rachel Hackbarth and Drake to prevent the No. 8 seed from completing its improbable run. The Bluejays continued their fierce play in the NCAA Tournament, giving the 14th-ranked St. John's Red Storm all it wanted. Two free throws by Tritz pulled the Bluejays even in the closing seconds, but St. John's was able to take the game on a teardrop jumper for the win, 69-67. The 2011-12 season saw Creighton close the season with victories in eight of the Bluejays' final 10 contests. Tritz was an All-MVC First Team selection, closing the year with 462 points (14.4 ppg). Fellow sophomore Sarah Nelson led the Bluejays with 251 rebounds (7.6 rpg).

March 15, 2002
Bryce Jordan Center
State College, Pa.

The Bluejays concluded the 2001-02 campaign with a 73-58 loss to fifth-seeded Florida International in the first round of the NCAA Tournament. Making their first appearance in the tournament since 1994, the Jays saw a 32-28 halftime lead disappear as they were outscored 45-26 in the second half. Laura Spanheimer and Christy Neneman paced the Jays with 14 points each, while Teresa Wessling chipped in 11. Creighton led the Golden Panthers by seven early in the second half, but FIU held the Jays scoreless over the final four minutes and closed the game with a 14-0 run. Creighton shot just 26 percent from the field. FIU used the inside presence of Cheryl Moody and Cornisha Cotton, who contributed 12 and 13 rebounds respectively, to own a 53-35 rebounding advantage and outscore CU 34-10 in the paint. Senior Kim Hover saw limited action due to a sprained ankle suffered in pre-game shootaround.

2012 NCAA Tournament

Creighton 67
#14 St. John's 69

March 18, 2012
Lloyd Noble Center
Norman, Okla.

Creighton suffered a heartbreaking loss in the final second of its game against No. 14 St. John's in the first round of the NCAA Tournament. Nadirah McKenith's runner in the lane went through the hoop with one-tenth of a second left in regulation to give the third-seeded Red Storm a 69-67 win over the Bluejays. Trailing 65-61 with under two minutes remaining, senior DaNaë Moore put the Bluejays on her shoulders. Moore converted a layup with 1:01 remaining to bring the Jays within a bucket. Seconds later, the Red Storm were whistled for a flagrant foul, sending Moore to the free throw line. With the season on the line, Moore hit both shots to tie the game at 65-65. After the Red Storm converted two free throws with 19 seconds remaining, sophomore Carli Tritz drove the lane to force contact, getting to the foul line with 5.7 seconds remaining. Tritz nailed the first free throw with ease, then after a St. John's timeout, she evened the game at 67-67. McKenith had just enough time to rush down court and hit a high-arching five-footer to steal the game.

Laura Spanheimer led the Bluejays with 14 points and seven rebounds in a meeting with Florida International in the 2002 NCAA Tournament at Penn State.

Ally Jensen delivered 15 points in the Bluejays' 69-67 loss to No. 14 St. John's.

2012-13 Creighton Bluejays 25-8 Overall • 15-3 MVC (T-1st)

Coming off their first NCAA Tournament appearance under head coach Jim Flanery, the 2012-13 Bluejays entered the season with some unfamiliar expectations. The additional pressure did nothing but fuel the Bluejays, as Creighton posted its best record (25-8) under Flanery.

A key to the season was a comeback win over BYU. Down 17 points late in the second half, the Jays' rallied for a 65-62 overtime win. The Bluejays went on to down No. 25 Nebraska (66-57) on Dec. 5 in the next contest and shared the Missouri Valley Conference regular-season crown with a 15-3 MVC mark, including a perfect 9-0 conference record at home.

Along the way, Flanery claimed his 200th victory at the Creighton helm (Jan. 5 in Evansville) to cement his hold on the most victories by a Bluejay head coach. Junior Sarah Nelson and freshman Marissa Janning shined throughout the year, earning spots on the All-MVC First Team.

Despite a loss to Illinois State in the MVC Tournament, Flanery's consistently tough scheduling allowed the Jays to capture an at-large berth to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 1994. The Bluejays made the most of the opportunity, downing No. 22 Syracuse 61-56 on March 23 in an NCAA First Round contest in Knoxville, Tenn.

Junior McKenzie Fujan defined the Bluejays performance, scoring a team-high 24 points in the win. Creighton's season came to a close against No. 10 Tennessee in the NCAA Tournament's Second Round as the Bluejays fell, 68-52.

 Knoxville, Tenn.

Junior McKenzie Fujan scored a season-high 24 points as Creighton held off a late Syracuse rally to beat the Orange 61-56 and earn its first NCAA Tournament victory since 1994.

Creighton struggled from the field early as the Orange built a 14-5 lead with 10:26 remaining. Everything changed, however, at 9:59 with a three-ball from Fujan. The Weston, Neb., native found a sweet spot on the left wing to cut it to 14-8. Following a defensive stop, freshman Marissa Janning found Fujan in the same spot with the identical result. Down 17-12 moments later, Janning found Fujan wide open along the left wing a third time.

Fujan had 17 points for Creighton in the opening half, shooting 6-of-7 from the field, including 5-of-6 from beyond the arc.

Riding the momentum of the opening half, Creighton outscored Syracuse 9-2 to build a 33-26 lead. Fujan converted a layup to open the scoring, but Janning provided five points to lead the Jays' charge.

One last dash from the Orange made it a one possession game (55-52), but Janning, Fujan and Sarah Nelson each nailed two free throws to give the Jays the 61-56 win.

Creighton (25-8) 52
#10 Tennessee (26-7) 68

March 25, 2013

Thompson-Boling Arena
 Knoxville, Tenn.

Creighton came out fighting early, taking its first lead at 16-15 on a three-pointer from senior Ally Jensen just before the midpoint of the first half. Tennessee, however, went on an 11-3 run to take control before half.

The Lady Vols came out strong to start the second half. After junior McKenzie Fujan scored the first bucket of the half, Tennessee scored the next 13 points in a span of 2:18 as the Lady Vols went ahead 48-31 with 14:56 left. The Bluejays fell behind as much as 52-33, only to show signs of life with a 7-0 run capped by a Jensen three-ball with 11:00 to play.

The Bluejays cut the deficit down to 59-50 with 4:30 left, only to have Meighan Simmons drain a three-pointer that squashed any momentum from the visitors. That started a 9-0 run until a Jordan Garrison lay-up in the final seconds.

Creighton shot 32.1 percent from the floor on the evening and were just 4-of-22 from three-point range. The Jays outrebounded UT 35-29, but also turned the ball over 19 times. Tennessee shot 48.9 percent for the game, including 6-of-10 from downtown, and were also 16-for-19 at the stripe.

2016-17 Creighton Bluejays
24-8 Overall • 16-2 BIG EAST (T-1st)

After starting the season with a 1-3 record, it may have been hard to believe that Creighton would deliver one of its best seasons in school history. The Bluejays went on to win 22 of the next 25 games, including 16 of 18 league contests to claim a share of the BIG EAST regular-season title. Creighton climbed into the Associated Press Top 25 poll for the first time since 1992, checking in at No. 23 on March 6.

After earning the second at-large berth to the NCAA Tournament under head coach Jim Flanery, the Bluejays' success continued as Creighton easily disposed of Toledo in the first round, 76-49. Matched up with site host, Oregon State, Creighton pushed the eighth-ranked Beavers to the end before succumbing in the Second Round.

Sophomore Audrey Faber and fifth-year senior Marissa Janning excelled throughout the season as the duo averaged 12.8 and 11.6 points per game to lead Creighton. Faber was rewarded with a BIG EAST First Team selection, while Janning earned a spot on the BIG EAST Second Team.

While Faber and Janning earned the headlines, seniors Brianna Rollerson and Lauren Works also went out on top. Rollerson collected seven double-doubles as she grabbed a team-high 227 rebounds to earn the BIG EAST Most Improved Player Award. Works, meanwhile, hit game-tying three-pointers in both of the Bluejays overtime wins (vs. Georgetown on Jan. 8 and at Seton Hall on Jan. 22) and also nabbed the BIG EAST Sportsmanship Award.

2017 NCAA Tournament

Toledo (25-9) 49Creighton (24-7) 76*March 17, 2017*Gill Coliseum • Corvallis, Ore.

A 15-point opening quarter from senior Marissa Janning sent Creighton to a 76-49 win over Toledo during the first round of the NCAA Tournament.

The Bluejays came out firing from the jump as Janning delivered Creighton's first four points, followed by a three-pointer from sophomore Audrey Faber to take a 7-0 lead. Creighton's edge grew to 21-6 with 3:34 left in the period, thanks to treys from Janning and senior Lauren Works. The Bluejays held a 27-12 advantage after one period.

Janning was forced to the sideline late in the opening quarter with two fouls, but Faber stepped up her game by getting to the foul line (4-4 in the second quarter). The rest of the Bluejays continued to knock down three-pointers (7-of-10 in the first half) as Creighton led 44-22 at the break.

Toledo opened the second half with six straight points to close within 16 (44-28), but junior Sydney Lamberty ended the Rockets' launch with five of the next seven points. The Bluejays pushed its lead to its largest margin (28 points) at 63-35 by the end of the third on another three-ball by Lamberty.

Creighton (24-8) 52#8 Oregon State (31-4) 64*March 19, 2017*Gill Coliseum • Corvallis, Ore.

The Bluejays gave No. 8 Oregon State a battle in the Second Round of the NCAA Tournament, but the Beavers came out with the 64-52 win.

Playing in front of over 5,000 Beaver fans the Bluejays felt a few jitters as Oregon State grabbed an 11-4 early advantage and led 17-10 after the first quarter.

Creighton's offense started to pick up steam in the second period, but each time the Bluejays began to peck into the lead the Beavers answered. Creighton came as close as five early in the second via a running jumper from junior Sydney Lamberty (19-14 with 7:40 on the clock), yet Oregon State got the next four to push back out by nine. The Bluejays closed within five once more with 3:22 left on consecutive layups by sophomore Audrey Faber and freshman Jaylyn Agnew (28-23), but the Beavers closed the half on an 11-4 burst to hold a 39-27 lead at halftime.

Down 50-35 midway through the third, Creighton scored five straight on a trey from Faber and two free throws from Lamberty.

Consecutive buckets from senior Brianna Rollerson and Lamberty early in the fourth, forced Oregon State head coach Scott Rueck to use a timeout with the Bluejays down just 54-48 (6:42). Oregon State was able to hold Creighton at bay and went on to collect the 64-52 win.

2017-18 Creighton Bluejays
19-13 Overall • 11-7 BIG EAST (4th)

The 2017-18 season was easily one for the record book, one that saw the Bluejays giving extra effort time and time again. The Bluejays set the NCAA record by playing 11 overtime periods over six contests. Creighton went 5-1 in those games, highlighted by a double overtime win over Northern Iowa at home (89-78 on Nov. 21), a four-overtime marathon victory at Drake (108-100 on Dec. 3), and a double overtime thriller in Providence (87-84) on Feb. 10.

It wasn't just games themselves that came down to the wire as the day before the NCAA Tournament field was unveiled, the selection committee announced eight teams that represented the final four at-large teams in the 'Dance' as well as the first four teams out. The Bluejays were not only one of the eight announced, Creighton was the last team of that group shown during Selection Monday.

Having already painted the state blue during the regular season, the Bluejays pushed bragging rights east during the NCAA Tournament as Creighton upset No. 6 seed Iowa, 76-70 in the First Round. Two days later the season came to a close against No. 9 UCLA.

On the court itself senior Sydney Lamberty proved to be the ultimate utility player, playing 1,230 minutes of a possible 1,335 during the season. Lamberty dished out a team-best 172 assists, was second on the squad with 198 rebounds and third in scoring with 380 points. Junior Audrey Faber and sophomore Jaylyn Agnew, meanwhile earned All-BIG EAST Second Team honors finishing with 475 and 464 points, respectively.

Creighton (19-12)..... 76Iowa (24-8)..... 70*March 17, 2018*Pauley Pavilion • Los Angeles, Calif.

Jaylyn Agnew and Sydney Lamberty combined for 44 points to lead the No. 11 seeded Creighton women's basketball team to a 76-70 victory over No. 6 seed Iowa.

The teams were tied at 19 after one quarter after Agnew's layup beat the buzzer. The Bluejays took a 34-31 lead into the intermission when Agnew found Lamberty for a reverse lay-in in the final seconds of the second quarter. Agnew paced the Bluejays with 11 points in the first half, helping to offset 16 points and 11 rebounds before the break by Iowa All-American Megan Gustafson.

The Bluejays took a 56-50 lead into the fourth quarter, limiting Gustafson to just one shot from the field in the third quarter. Creighton stretched its lead in the fourth frame (59-50) to nine when Audrey Faber's three-pointer connected with 8:49 to play, only to see Gustafson answer with five straight points to draw the Hawkeyes within four. But Lamberty would counter with a three-pointer with 6:19 left to push the Creighton lead back to 62-55.

At one point Lamberty scored nine straight for Creighton, including a hoop with 1:37 left that gave the Bluejays a 68-61 lead and prompted a Hawkeye timeout. Iowa quickly answered with a trey, but the Bluejays held on down the stretch.

Creighton (19-13)..... 64#9 UCLA (26-7)..... 86*March 19, 2018*Pauley Pavilion • Los Angeles, Calif.

Despite a strong performance from Audrey Faber, the Creighton women's basketball team dropped an 86-64 contest to the ninth-ranked UCLA Bruins in the Second Round of the NCAA Tournament.

Faber opened the game with a trey from the left-corner to give the Bluejays an advantage, but the Bruins rattled off 13 consecutive points over four minutes to surge ahead 13-3 (4:51).

UCLA came out quickly once more in the second period, racing out to a 32-15 lead. Faber rallied her troops with a driving jumper to start a 7-0 Creighton run, followed by a layup from Sydney Lamberty to make it 32-19, then Faber connected from long range as the Bluejays cut the deficit to 32-22 (6:55). The two squads exchanged bursts of five points, pushing the contest to 37-27 (5:07), however it was UCLA that closed the half with a final run to take a 49-32 edge into the half.

While both teams shot over 50 percent in the first half, Creighton went cold in the third quarter. The Bluejays closed the period just 2-of-13 (15%) as Creighton trailed by as much as 28 in the frame and went to the fourth period down 71-45. Creighton and UCLA liberally used their bench in the final frame, with the Bluejays getting no closer than 21 the rest of the way.

23-7 Overall • Independent

Competing in their final year as an independent, the 1986-87 team finally garnered national recognition with their third consecutive 20-win season earning them a national postseason tournament berth. The Bluejays opened the year with eight consecutive victories, including wins over Nebraska, Kansas State and Kansas. Creighton Hall of Famers Pam Gradoville and Tanya Warren led the Bluejays in scoring, with Gradoville establishing a then school record with 22.0 points per game (22nd in the NCAA). Warren was named to the Kodak All-District V team, averaging 18.7 points per game and dishing out a school-record 228 assists to rank 10th in the NCAA. Janet Ensign set a school record with 260 rebounds. The first postseason win in school history came on March 19, 1987, when the Creighton defeated Stephen F. Austin, 76-68, at the WNIT held in Amarillo, Texas. The Bluejays went on to fall to Cal in the semifinals, but bounced back to defeat Providence, 91-89 in the consolation game.

16-14 Overall • 9-9 MVC (7th)

The Bluejays were part of a record-setting season for the Missouri Valley Conference, as the league sent six women's teams to the postseason. The Bluejays finished seventh in the regular season but helped their WNIT chances by becoming the second No. 7 seed to advance to the MVC Tournament Championship game, joining the 1997 Wichita State in accomplishing the feat. Creighton eventually lost to Evansville, 75-72 in overtime, in the MVC Final and fell at Kansas State in the WNIT to end their season. Creighton played four ranked opponents during the season, winning at No. 25 Missouri State on Jan. 2. The Bluejays did not win more than three consecutive games all season, playing in a very balanced and competitive Valley. Taya Allen earned MVC Newcomer of the Year and honorable mention recognition, while Krissie Spanheimer joined Allen on the All-MVC Honorable Mention squad.

24-9 Overall • 13-5 MVC (T-1st)

The 2002-03 Bluejays coupled with the 2001-02 squad to become the first teams in school history to make consecutive postseason tournaments, advancing to the WNIT Final Four. Creighton earned a share of the Missouri Valley Conference regular-season title with Indiana State, but fell in the semifinals of the MVC Tournament. The Bluejays dominated at home, going 13-0 in the regular season, but struggled to a 7-7 record on the road in regular-season play. When the Bluejays went to Maine for the first round of the WNIT, nothing indicated they'd be able to advance past the Black Bears. But after knocking off the Bears (the team with the most wins entering the WNIT), Creighton won at Siena with a 96-point output, and then traveled to Iowa where they defeated the Hawkeyes for the second time that season. The Bluejays' run came to an end in front of a Civic Auditorium record 4,439 fans, as Creighton lost to eventual WNIT champion Auburn in the semifinals.

The loss ended the Bluejays' 23-game home winning streak, the second-longest streak in the NCAA at the time. For the second straight season, the Bluejays set a school and MVC record for three-point field goals made with 259, ranking sixth in the NCAA with 7.8 three-pointers per game. Christy Neneman became the third player in league history to win consecutive conference Player of the Year honors, Laura Spanheimer was honored as the MVC Defensive Player of the Year (while ranking fifth in the NCAA with a 45.8 3FG percentage) and head coach Jim Flanery became the winningest rookie coach in conference history.

2004 WNIT Champions 24-9 Overall • 15-3 MVC (2nd)

Creighton capped its 2003-04 season with a five-game winning streak in the WNIT to claim the first national postseason tournament title by any athletic program in school history.

The 73-52 throttling of UNLV in front of a rowdy Civic Auditorium crowd concluded one of the most successful seasons in school history. The Bluejays finished with a 24-9 record for the second straight year, becoming the first team in Missouri Valley Conference history to win at least 24 games in three consecutive campaigns. Head Coach Jim Flanery improved his record to 48-18, tying the best two-year start by a coach in league history. The Bluejays went 12-1 at home, while their 28-game home winning streak in conference play came to an end as the second-longest such streak in MVC history. The amazing run in the WNIT was led by tournament MVP Christy Neneman. The senior closed her career averaging 15.6 points, 6.0 rebounds and 4.6 assists per tournament game. Dayna Finch and Laura Spanheimer joined Neneman on the all-tournament team. Finch led the team with 17.0 points per WNIT game, sinking 14 three-pointers in the five wins. Spanheimer averaged 14.4 points, 5.4 rebounds, and 2.4 steals per WNIT contest. The Bluejays made 44 three-point field goals and shot 89.9 percent (71-79) at the free throw line during its five-game championship run. Creighton opened the WNIT on the road with wins at Colorado State and Washington before returning home for the final three rounds of the tournament. The Bluejays rallied for a come-from-behind win over Oregon State in the quarterfinals, built a 72-51 lead over Richmond in their 81-72 semifinal victory and then cruised past UNLV in the championship game. Neneman and Spanheimer each earned First Team All-MVC recognition, while Finch was tabbed All-MVC Honorable Mention. Spanheimer was also named the MVC Defensive Player of the Year for the second straight season and earned all-defensive team honors for the third time. Finch and Spanheimer repeated on the MVC Scholar-Athlete First Team and Finch was tabbed the MVC Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

For the third consecutive season, the Bluejays set a school record for three-pointers made with 260 treys. They ranked third in the NCAA in three-pointers per game and ranked among the NCAA elite in fewest turnovers per game (11th) and steals per game (29th). Finch finished seventh in the NCAA in three-pointers per game and established MVC records with 294 career three-pointers on 766 career attempts. Spanheimer became just the second Bluejay player to record 100 steals in a season. Kristi Woodard set a school record and led the MVC by shooting 89.2 % (66-74) from the free throw line. The Bluejays were rewarded for their championship season with a reception on April 18 as Omaha Mayor Mike Fahey proclaimed the day "2004 Women's National Invitation Tournament Champion Creighton Women's Basketball Day." Nebraska State Senator John Synowiecki also recognized each player and coach for their achievement.

19-10 Overall • 13-5 MVC (T-2nd)

The Bluejays continued its postseason run, appearing in their third straight WNIT. Creighton jumped out to their best start since the 1993-94 season, opening the year 12-3, while their 6-0 conference start was their best since that same 1994 squad. Following a 4-3 start Creighton rattled off eight straight wins, the Bluejays however fell at Missouri State on Jan. 23 and lost starting forward Christy Erickson to injury for the rest of the season. The Bluejays were again powerful at home, going 12-3 at the Civic. After an 8-1 run through the first half of conference play, which included four wins by five-points or less, they limped to a 5-4 Valley finish and lost in the quarterfinals of the MVC tournament for the second straight season. The Bluejays' season ended at Iowa in the first round of the WNIT. Creighton played close games all season, setting a then school record by playing in four overtime games. The team set a school record with 130 blocked shots and a 75.3 free throw percentage. They ranked in the NCAA top-25 in free throw percentage (16th), fewest turnovers per game (20th), three-point field goals per game (21st) and points per game (22nd). Laura Spanheimer and Angie Janis both earned First Team All-MVC and First Team Academic All-MVC honors. Spanheimer was also named the MVC Scholar-Athlete of the Year and set the school and MVC career record with 369 steals, becoming the first player in league history to earn All-Defensive team honors four times. Janis led the team with 19.1 points per game, the fifth Bluejay player to average better than 19 points in a season.

Creighton opened the year with a 7-4 mark against a tough non-conference schedule – five of CU's non-conference foes advanced to the NCAA Tournament in 2008, while two more joined the Jays in the WNIT. The Jays owned wins over eventual conference champions Kansas State and UALR in non-conference play. The Bluejays reclaimed their dominance at home, posting an 11-1 mark at the Omaha Civic Auditorium. Creighton opened the WNIT with a road trip to South Dakota State, where the Bluejays snapped the Jackrabbits' 12-game winning streak and 22-game home winning streak before falling in overtime at eventual champion Marquette in the second round of the WNIT. The Bluejays also snapped Illinois State's 14-game winning streak on Feb. 2, notching their first win over a top-25 opponent since 1999, and ended Evansville's 10-game winning streak on Feb. 17. Creighton's win over Indiana State on Jan. 31 was Flanery's 100th career victory. The Bluejays led the MVC with 40.7 rebounds per game, while establishing school records with 892 defensive rebounds and 1,342 total rebounds on the year. Creighton also led the MVC with 222 three-pointers, as its 6.7 3FG/game ranked 27th in the NCAA. Ally Thrall was named First Team All-MVC after leading the MVC in minutes played and finishing with a career-high 125 assists. Sara Cain earned All-MVC Second Team honors, while Kelsey Woodard was named to the MVC All-Freshman Team and set a Valley record by earning league Newcomer of the Week honors six times during her rookie season.

Creighton logged its second straight 20-win campaign and fifth 20-win season in an eight-year span. After a 2-6 start, the Bluejays went 20-6 to close out the season, including an appearance in the MVC Tournament title game and their sixth postseason appearance in eight years. The Bluejays posted a 14-4 record in MVC play, good for a second-place finish. Creighton managed success despite playing without two injured starters, as Sam Schuett missed the entire season and Michelle Kaus missed all but three games. Creighton was the top defensive team in the MVC, allowing 56 points per game to rank 31st in the NCAA. Creighton's 13.5 turnovers per game ranked eighth in the nation and its MVC-best 6.6 three-pointers per game ranked 32nd in the NCAA. An 11-game winning streak from Jan. 8 – Feb. 14 was the longest such streak under Jim Flanery, the best by a Bluejay team since the 1991-92 season and the longest MVC streak in CU history. Megan Neuirth was named MVC Defensive Player of the Year, leading the conference in steals and rebounds and topping the team in assists and blocked shots. Her 325 rebounds established a school record and tied for the eighth most in MVC history, while she was one of five players in the NCAA to rank in the top-50 in steals and rebounds per game. The Bluejays hosted the first women's game played at CHI Health Center Omaha (vs. Drake, Feb. 27) and logged 11 straight wins to close out their use of the Omaha Civic Auditorium.

Creighton enjoyed its first season in D.J. Sokol Arena and Ryan Athletic Center by posting a 12-3 home record, including wins in its final seven home games of the year. The Bluejays captured their third consecutive 20-win season, finished second in the MVC regular-season for the second straight season and appeared in the MVC Tournament title game for the second consecutive year and the third time in a four-year span. The Bluejays led the MVC and ranked 21st in the NCAA with 7.3 three-pointers per game, making better than 200 threes in a season for the sixth time in a nine-year span.

Creighton repeated as the top defensive team in the MVC, allowing only 58.9 points per game, while ranking 22nd in the nation with only 14.7 turnovers per game. Sam Schuett finished 18th in the NCAA by shooting 42.2 percent from three-point range, while she also made 40 consecutive free throw attempts to establish a school record during the season. Schuett was joined by Megan Neuirth to become the first Bluejay duo to be named First Team All-MVC in the same season since 2005. Neuirth, who was named MVC All-Defensive Team for the third time, finished her career with school records for career games played (130) and rebounds (929) – ninth in MVC history. Neuirth, Chevelle Herring and Kelsey Woodard became the first trio in school history to each surpass 1,000 career points in the same season.

Creighton appeared in the WNIT for the fourth consecutive season, joining Kansas and Florida Gulf Coast as the only teams to do so. Creighton finished second in the MVC, the seventh time in 10 seasons it finished second or higher. Seven of Creighton's 11 regular-season non-conference opponents advanced to the postseason, while the Bluejays' strength of schedule before MVC play began was a league-best 39th. Creighton was 12-3 at home, including its second game ever played at CHI Health Center Omaha against Kansas on Dec. 22. The Bluejays finished the season with eight straight home wins, including a 71-44 thrashing of Illinois State on senior day. Creighton led the MVC with 14.4 assists per game in conference play. The Bluejays tied a school record with 12 blocked shots at Missouri State on Feb. 27. Jim Flanery became just the seventh head coach in MVC history to reach 100 league wins when the Bluejays beat Wichita State 50-48 (Jan. 29) in the first overtime game played inside D.J. Sokol Arena. Flanery ended the season tied for second in school history with 170 overall victories. Carli Tritz was named MVC Freshman of the Year and All-MVC Honorable Mention after leading the team in assists, steals and field goal percentage. Kelsey Woodard earned First Team All-MVC honors, as she ended her career ranked third in school history and sixth in Valley history with 261 career three-pointers. Sam Schuett was named Second Team All-MVC and Sarah Nelson earned a spot on the MVC All-Freshman Team.

20-14 Overall • 12-6 BIG EAST (T-3rd)

Creighton's first season as a member of the BIG EAST Conference saw the Bluejays reach the postseason for the seventh consecutive season, advancing to the second round of the WNIT. The Bluejays, however, fell in a road contest at South Dakota State, 62-51. Creighton posted impressive victories over Minnesota (63-52 on Nov. 16) as well as wins over each of their nine new conference foes in the BIG EAST. Creighton claimed its first BIG EAST meeting with DePaul thanks in large part to the individual effort of senior McKenzie Fujan as she posted 38 points. Fujan's effort was the sixth-highest point total in a single game. A little more than a month later, Fujan's sophomore teammate Marissa Janning equalled the feat with 38 points to lead Creighton past Georgetown (75-61 on Feb. 5). Janning went on to claim the BIG EAST Player of the Year as she led the conference with 19.9 ppg in league play. Senior Sarah Nelson and Fujan also nabbed All-BIG EAST Second Team honors. Nelson closed her career with 1,472 points and 920 rebounds, becoming the just the third player in Bluejay history with at least 1,000 points and 900 rebounds. Janning topped the 1,000 point mark in Creighton's 77-51 win over Missouri in the opening round of the WNIT. With Janning, Nelson and senior Carli Tritz all over 1,000 points it was the first time since 2010 that the Bluejays could boast three players on the roster to reach that milestone.

17-14 Overall • 10-8 BIG EAST (T-5th)

Armed with five freshmen, Creighton battled through a tough non-conference featuring games at No. 1 Connecticut, at No. 14 California as well as home contests against No. 12 Nebraska and Kansas. The Bluejays closed non-conference play with four straight victories, including an 84-81 win in overtime against the Jayhawks (Dec. 22). After splitting its first two games in BIG EAST action, Creighton stumbled to a 2-5 conference start. Head coach Jim Flanery rallied his team as the Bluejays posted six straight wins, highlighted by consecutive road victories at St. John's (75-50 on Feb. 6) and at Seton Hall (81-73 on Feb. 8). The Bluejays went on to earn the No. 5 seed in the BIG EAST Championship, but fell to No. 4 St. John's in a hotly-contested quarterfinal game. The season continued 11 days later as Creighton qualified for its eighth consecutive postseason, reaching the WNIT for the second straight season. The Bluejays drew the South Dakota Coyotes, but the road conditions in the DakotaDome proved too much. Junior Marissa Janning led the Bluejays with 483 points (15.6 per game) during the season, earning her second consecutive selection to the All-BIG EAST First Team. Senior Alexis Akin-Otiko and freshman Sydney Lamberty both joined Janning in claiming postseason honors. Akin-Otiko was the BIG EAST's Most Improved Player and was selected to the All-BIG EAST Second Team. Lamberty, meanwhile, claimed six Freshman of the Week honors and was named to the BIG EAST All-Freshman Team.

17-18 Overall • 8-10 BIG EAST (T-5th)

The tandem of senior Marissa Janning and top-100 recruit Audrey Faber gave the Bluejays high hopes entering the 2015-16 season. The first two games of the season supported Creighton's hopes as the Bluejays easily handled Wichita State and Marist. Prior to a contest at Drake the injury bug bit Creighton as center Brianna Rollerson suffered a Jones fracture. After a stumble against the Bulldogs, Creighton downed East Carolina by 25 in the opening game of the Lone Star Showcase. Two games later, however, another injury struck as Janning suffered a broken left fibula. Playing without two players expected to see significant minutes per game, the Bluejays regrouped to finish non-conference play at 6-6. The opening of BIG EAST play dealt the Bluejays a new challenge, as Creighton dropped its first three contests. Facing a road contest at Villanova, the Bluejays regrouped behind MC McGrory as the Minnesota native exploded for 22 points to guide Creighton to its first win at the Pavilion. The Bluejays went on to take four straight to move over .500. The roller coaster ride of a season continued as Creighton dropped seven of the next 10 contests to fall to 7-10 in the BIG EAST and 13-16 overall.

Faced with missing the postseason for the first time since 2007, the Bluejays answered the challenge. Creighton's climb began with a 64-57 victory at St. John's on the Red Storm's senior night. Securing the No. 7 seed in the BIG EAST Tournament, the Bluejays defeated No. 10 Providence in the opening round, 70-53. The following night Creighton downed second-seeded Villanova for the third time, 57-48, behind another 20-point effort by McGrory. Playing their third game in three nights, the Bluejays became eligible for the postseason with a 77-56 win over No. 3 Seton Hall as Creighton advanced to the championship game against St. John's. The Red Storm ended Creighton's magical run, 50-37. Creighton drew a road contest with the eventual WNIT champion, South Dakota, in the opening round. Despite an impressive effort Creighton saw its season end for the second consecutive year in the DakotaDome, 74-68.

Creighton women's basketball will be playing its 11th season at D.J. Sokol Arena in 2019-20. The opening of D.J. Sokol Arena ended decades of roaming the Omaha area and a stretch of 18 seasons without playing a home game on campus.

Nine off-campus sites and two venues on-campus hosted home games for the Bluejays in their first 36 seasons of competition before D.J. Sokol Arena in the Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Center opened to rave reviews during the 2009-10 season. It has provided a unique game atmosphere and powerful home court advantage while helping the Bluejays post an 102-36 (.739) record in the first ten seasons at their new home.

Despite splitting time between 12 locations for almost four decades, the Bluejays still have impressive success at home. The Bluejays own a .730 home winning percentage all-time, going 413-153 in recorded history, including four undefeated home seasons (1984-85, 1985-86, 1986-87 and 1991-92) and home court winning streaks of 23, 29 and 44 games. The Bluejays are 174-60 (.744) at home under head coach Jim Flanery.

Before moving to D.J. Sokol Arena, the Bluejays ended their run at the Omaha Civic Auditorium with 11 straight victories, defeating UC Riverside, 64-51, on March 21, 2009, in the first round of the WNIT to conclude play at the Civic with a 213-88 (.708) record.

In the 1970s, the Bluejays played their home games at the Civic Auditorium and the Vinardi Athletic Center on campus. Creighton notched 92 home victories in the 1980s, primarily playing at the Civic and the Kiewit Fitness Center on campus, putting together a school-record streak of 44 consecutive wins from Feb. 4, 1984 to Feb. 24, 1987.

In 1992, the Bluejays hosted Long Beach State in the first round of the NCAA Tournament, defeating the 49ers before a crowd of 3,502 at the Civic. Creighton played before 4,439 fans – the largest crowd in their home history on March 31, 2003, when they hosted Auburn in the WNIT Semifinals. In the debut season of D.J. Sokol Arena, the Bluejays knocked off Stephen F. Austin in the first round of the WNIT to welcome postseason play to the new venue.

With its recent success, 12 of the top-15 attendance figures in Creighton women's basketball history have come since 2001. The Bluejays won 101 home games between 2000-09, including one of the nation's longest home court winning streaks of 23 games from 2001 through 2003.

The Bluejays logged back-to-back 9-0 home records (2001-02 & 2002-03) in Missouri Valley Conference (MVC) play, helping them post 28 consecutive home conference wins from 2001 through 2004, the second-longest such streak in MVC history. The Bluejays repeated the undefeated conference mark (9-0) in 2012-13, Creighton's final year as a member of the MVC. In the 2017-18 season, Creighton went 10-3 at D.J. Sokol Arena, including 7-2 in BIG EAST play.

More than 182,000 bricks, 654 tons of steel and 30 miles of electrical wire were used during construction of D.J. Sokol Arena. The height of the roof ridge is 78'-10" above the arena floor, with a unique ceiling fan measuring 20 feet in diameter spinning high above the playing surface.

Creighton opened D.J. Sokol Arena with a 77-54 win over Arkansas State on Nov. 13, 2009. The Bluejays have posted a 102-34 (.750) record in the first ten seasons inside their home (D.J. Sokol Arena firsts and records on pages 106-107).

Creighton

Location

Creighton is located in Omaha, Neb., which has a metropolitan area population of more than 900,000.

Creighton History

Founded in 1878, Creighton University is a private university, one of 27 Catholic, Jesuit colleges and universities in the United States.

Creighton Today

Creighton is a nationally recognized university, known for student-centered education and significant undergraduate student research opportunities. As a Jesuit university, Creighton is committed to academic excellence and service to others and seeks to create an inclusive, diverse community.

In addition to the College of Arts and Sciences, the University's oldest and largest college, Creighton includes the Heider College of Business, the College of Nursing, the College of Professional Studies, the Graduate School, and the Schools of Dentistry, Law, Medicine, and Pharmacy and Health Professions.

The freshman academic profile places Creighton among the Top 10 private Midwestern universities with more than 4,000 undergraduates and among the Top 10 Catholic universities in the nation.

For 2020, Creighton is nationally ranked by U.S. News & World Report at No. 21 for internship opportunities, No. 23 for best undergraduate teaching, No. 63 as a best-value school, and No. 69 as a best college for veterans.

The Princeton Review listed Creighton as one of the nation's top 382 colleges and universities in its latest college guide.

Student Snapshot

Creighton has more than 8,000 students: More than 4,000 are enrolled as undergraduates and more than 4,000 are enrolled in the graduate or professional programs.

One-third of Creighton undergraduates participate in research before graduating. Last year, Creighton undergraduates made nearly 400 presentations at local, regional and national research conferences.

Campus Life

Creighton offers more than 200 student clubs and organizations, including academic, athletic, cultural, Greek, political, professional, service, social and spiritual groups, as well as opportunities to work on campus publications.

Nine sophisticated on-campus living environments include two junior/senior townhome residence halls with technologically rich furnished apartments and complete kitchens.

Creighton students take part in more than one million hours of community service at local, national and international community organizations annually.

Creighton welcomes students of all religious beliefs and encourages students to participate in retreats, faith-sharing opportunities and multi-faith services.

Students may enroll in faculty-led courses taught abroad, Creighton's service-learning semester in the Dominican Republic or study abroad in nearly every country in the world.

Creighton also offers online education and has campuses outside of the Omaha area, including a health sciences campus in Phoenix; occupational therapy partnerships with the University of Alaska in Anchorage and Regis University in Denver; and a campus for nursing students in Hastings, Neb.

Our Alumni

Nearly 70,000 Creighton alumni live in 90 countries, with 30 percent living in Nebraska. The largest number of alumni who live outside the United States reside in Canada, Japan and Malaysia.

The Creighton Campus

Creighton is committed to being a model living-learning campus environment. The 120-acre campus is located within walking distance of downtown Omaha and many recreational, cultural and entertainment opportunities. The campus design and master plan have received top awards in landscape and architecture.

At the center of campus is the heart of the University, the historic and recently restored St. John's Church, as well as the California Street Mall, the Lied Education Center for the Arts, the V.J. and Angela Skutt Student Center and the Kiewit Fitness Center.

The University recently undertook the largest renovation project in its history, with more than 100,000 sq. ft. of academic space being remodeled. Since 2000, Creighton has invested more than $300 million in on-campus improvements and planned expansion to create a more vibrant and robust campus:

- Michael G. Morrison, S.J., Stadium is home to Creighton's soccer teams and also hosts high school, club and international soccer events and a variety of Omaha community events.
- The Hixson-Lied Science Building, the renovated Rigge Science Building and Criss Health Sciences Building form the centerpiece of Creighton's undergraduate and health professions' leading approach to teaching and research.
- Davis Square and Opus Hall are upperclassman townhome residence halls located on the east side of campus.
- The Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Center and D.J. Sokol Arena serves as an on-campus home to Creighton women's basketball and volleyball.
- The Rasmussen Fitness & Sports Center opened in the fall of 2012 and serves the fitness needs of all students.
- The Mike and Josie Harper Center became the home of the Heider College of Business in the fall of 2013.
- The Championship Center opened in 2014, and Ruth Scott Training Center opened in 2019.
- A state-of-the-art 200,000-square foot School of Dentistry education and clinic building at 21st and Cumming streets opened in the summer of 2018.

History of Billy Bluejay

Billy Bluejay is the official mascot of the Creighton University Athletics Department. Creighton is a private, Jesuit NCAA Division I school in Omaha, Neb., founded in 1878.

Prior to 1924, with no official athletics nickname, University publications and news media often referred to Creighton athletic teams by the school's colors – the "White and Blue," or vice versa. Because of Creighton's location atop a bluff, the team was occasionally designated unofficially as the "Hilltoppers," but the name lost favor because at least six other teams in the country went by the same nickname. At the behest of Creighton's Athletics Board and Alumni Association, the Omaha Bee newspaper coordinated a public contest in late 1923 to select a nickname and mascot for Creighton University athletic teams. After reviewing 200 entries, the Athletics Board decided upon "Bluejays" because the color of the bird was in keeping with school colors.

The Bluejays were originally depicted by an ornithologically correct rendition of the bird. In 1941, Creighton alumnus Joseph P. Murphy, a 1931 graduate of the College of Business and, at the time, a Creighton journalism professor and the head of its public relations department, designed a graphical image of the bird with a more human stance and expression. Murphy's 1941 design remained largely intact for the past 72 years with only minor revisions. While it is unclear on the exact year the first walking costume mascot modeled after Murphy's 1941 graphical image appeared publicly or the first time the image or mascot were referred to as "Billy Bluejay," many costumes were created, changed/re-designed over the past seven decades as Billy became a fixture at Creighton Athletics events, roaming the sidelines to cheer on his beloved Bluejays.

In October, 2013, in conjunction with Creighton's move to the BIG EAST Conference, the University unveiled a new Athletics brand – athletic logo, sport-specific logos and corresponding secondary marks designed to increase overall awareness of the Creighton University Bluejays – locally, regionally and nationally. The new logo was designed to build on the history, tradition and love of previous Billy Bluejay icons while maintaining the integrity of the past and establishing the new Creighton Bluejay brand as a distinct and recognizable identity in the BIG EAST.

Creighton Athletics turned to Street Characters to provide an updated Billy Bluejay walking mascot costume, one that was more vibrant, more athletic and one that more closely resembled the new athletics brand.

The new-look Billy Bluejay walking mascot costume made his first public appearance in front of over 17,000 fans when the Creighton men's basketball team hosted Nebraska on Dec. 8, 2013 at CHI Health Center Omaha.

Think of Omaha as center court: a dynamic and unique destination in the center of the country, full of action. Omaha has this special spirit that fills the city like an arena full of fans whose team just won with a buzzer beater. Excitement abounds for what it has built, what it has accomplished and what's still ahead.

It's a spirit born on the banks of the Missouri River, a city founded in 1854 by land speculators convinced they were at the heart of something new. Soon after, the transcontinental railroad was built and Omaha emerged as a hotbed of activity and new technologies.

There is a great story about Omaha's growth in the early days that really speaks to the pioneering spirit of the city. As Omaha prepared to lay underground cables for telephones, workers were trying to figure out the easiest way to string the lines. Being an inventive bunch, Omahans solved the problem by getting ferrets to help carry the lines through the tunnels. Sounds extraordinary, but it worked. Today, Omaha is at the center of the telecommunications industry. Call for a hotel reservation from anywhere in the U.S. and you are probably calling Omaha. The city is home to the Hyatt, Marriott, Radisson, and Omni reservation centers. That infrastructure is also key to the nation's defense. Offutt Air Force Base, home to STRATCOM, is based here. STRATCOM is the nation's eyes, ears and muscle when it comes to protecting the country.

That spirit is also seen in Omaha's modern day pioneers. Warren Buffett, one of the wealthiest men in the world, is a plainspoken Omaha-born and bred financial pioneer.

More than 900,000 people live in metro Omaha, and about 1.2 million people live within a 50-mile radius.

When Warren speaks, people listen, learn and make money. In fact, as you look at the four Fortune 500 companies that call Omaha home, they are all innovators: Berkshire Hathaway, Union Pacific, Mutual of Omaha and Peter Kiewit Sons'. It's not just the business community that embodies that spirit; you can also listen to it, touch it, taste it and feel it.

Home to the world's largest indoor rainforest, next to the world's largest indoor desert under the world's largest geodesic dome, Omaha's Henry Doorly Zoo is a can't miss when you're in town. Experience what it's like to go underground and see rare creatures that only come out at night, or surround yourself with sharks as you walk through an 850,000-gallon underwater tunnel.

Talk about innovative: The zoo spent $6 million on a research facility allowing it to respond to national and international conservation needs.

Omaha's three Smithsonian-affiliated museums feature diverse offerings. Gaze at a 15,000-pound glass sculpture suspended in the air at the Joslyn Art Museum, hop on board Harry S. Truman's press train at the Durham Museum, or "pilot" a fighter jet at the Strategic Air and Space Museum, home to some of the most prized and rarely displayed military aircraft. Discover how nature can seem brand new as you walk through over 100 acres of lush and rare flora at Lauritzen Gardens, Omaha's botanical center.

Omaha is a mecca to music pioneers, as the city is known by many as the nation's premier hot spot for the indie rock scene. It's home to famed Saddle Creek Records and nationally renowned bands such as Bright Eyes, The Faint and Cursive.

Omaha is a city that never forgets its past. The Old Market is the true merging of old and new. The historic warehouse district was preserved and transformed into an art, shopping and dining district. Unique shops and restaurants lining cobblestone streets, it's a place to remember where you've been and where you're going.

The Bob Kerrey Pedestrian Bridge S-curves its way across the Missouri River. This one-of-a-kind structure is the longest pedestrian bridge to link two states. It's just one more example of how Omaha stays fresh and innovative, all thanks to that indelible pioneering spirit.

McCormick Endowed
Director of Athletics
Bruce Rasmussen

Bruce Rasmussen enters his 26th year as McCormick Endowed Athletic Director, and 40th overall at Creighton University, in 2019-20.

During Rasmussen's tenure, Creighton has risen to prominence with its success on and off the field, impressive facilities and record-breaking fundraising efforts. Rasmussen also helped lead the charge for one of the biggest moves in school history when the school accepted an invitation into the BIG EAST Conference in March of 2013.

Rasmussen's efforts continue to be recognized on a national level. In June of 2019, he became Division I's first four-time recipient of the Under Armour Athletic Director of the Year Award, an honor he also received in 2004, 2010 and 2015. Rasmussen was also honored by the Division I-AAA Athletic Directors Association with the 2019 Gary Cunningham Lifetime Achievement Award at the annual NACDA Convention.

In 2018, Rasmussen wrapped up a five-year term on the highly-esteemed NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Selection Committee, serving as chairman in his final year.

Under Rasmussen's leadership, Creighton has built new athletic facilities in virtually every sport.

Michael G. Morrison, S.J., Stadium and CHI Health Center Omaha opened during the 2003-04 academic year. The Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Center and D.J. Sokol Arena opened in 2009 and immediately gave Creighton's women's basketball and volleyball teams a top-notch facility to call home.

TD Ameritrade Park Omaha, home to Bluejay baseball and the College World Series, opened in 2011 to rave reviews. A year later Creighton opened a student recreation center named the Rasmussen Center in his honor.

In 2014, the Championship Center opened as a practice facility for men's basketball and athletic training, academic and athletic performance headquarters for all sports.

Most recently, the spring of 2019 saw the opening of Ruth Scott Training Center, a practice facility for women's basketball and volleyball.

Since Rasmussen assumed the role of athletics director, Creighton has won 40 regular-season and 42 conference tournament titles, which have helped lead to 86 postseason appearances. The Bluejays remain the only school in the history of the Missouri Valley Conference to make 16 straight men's basketball postseasons, and have made the NCAA Tournament in men's soccer in 24 of the past 27 years. Creighton was also recognized with the MVC All-Academic Award in seven of its last nine seasons in the league.

A member of the College World Series of Omaha, Inc., Executive Committee, Rasmussen continues to play a vital role in Creighton and the city of Omaha remaining as host of the College World Series. He was one of six individuals on the CWS Oversight Committee that helped decide the location for the new downtown TD Ameritrade Park Omaha, which will help keep the CWS in Omaha for another 25 years. With Creighton serving as host, the CWS has welcomed more than 300,000 fans in each of the last 14 years.

Creighton's reputation as one of the nation's top academic institutions is reflected in the success the Bluejay student-athletes have had in the classroom during Rasmussen's service as athletics director. Creighton's baseball, softball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's cross country, women's golf, women's soccer as well as men's and women's tennis teams all have received national awards for their academic success. Bluejay student-athletes have owned GPAs of 3.30 or above in 26 straight semesters entering the fall of 2019.

Creighton's primary annual athletics fundraising events are the Bluejay Bash and the Bluejay Jamboree. Under Rasmussen's leadership, each of these events continues to raise record-breaking funds for Creighton athletics. Most notably, the 2018 Jamboree generated more than $270,000 through its gourmet dinner, raffle and auction.

Rasmussen accepted the associate athletics director position in 1992 after a 12-year run as the winningest coach in Creighton women's basketball history (196-147), that culminating in the program's historic 1991-92 season. The 1992 Western Athletic Conference Coach of the Year, Rasmussen led the 1991-92 Bluejay women to a program-record 28 wins (28-4), the WAC regular-season and tournament championships and a first-round NCAA Tournament victory in the program's first-ever trip to the "Big Dance." With that 28-4 record in 1991-92, Rasmussen completed his college coaching career with a 196-147 record, good for a .571 winning percentage. In 2008, he was inducted into the Omaha Sports Hall of Fame.

After serving as associate athletics director for two years, 1992-94, Rasmussen was named athletics director on Aug. 1, 1994. A native of Webster City, Iowa, Rasmussen and his wife, Jill, have five children: Megan, David, John, Katie and Grace.

President
Rev. Daniel S. Hendrickson,
S.J., Ph.D.

The Rev. Daniel Hendrickson, S.J., Ph.D., is the 25th president of Creighton University. A Nebraska native, Fr. Hendrickson earned his B.A. in psychology and theology from Marquette University in 1993 and entered the Society of Jesus in 1994. He received his M.A. in philosophical resources from Fordham University, a Master of Divinity degree from the Jesuit School of Theology at Santa Clara University, and M.A. and Ph.D. degrees from Columbia University.

Fr. Hendrickson's first contact with Creighton was as a student in the Jesuit Humanities Program in 1996. He returned as an adjunct instructor of philosophy from 2000 to 2003. He also served as an adjunct professor with Creighton's Institute for Latin American Concern (ILAC) program in Santiago, Dominican Republic, in 2002. Fr. Hendrickson was a visiting instructor at Jordan University College in Morogoro, Tanzania, and an adjunct professor of philosophy at Fordham University.

In 2012, he returned to Marquette University as associate vice president in the Office of the Executive Vice President, working closely with the president, provost and academic deans. He then became an associate provost for academic initiatives at Marquette. While in administrative posts at Marquette, Fr. Hendrickson also taught each semester jointly in the Department of Philosophy and College of Education, and he served as the co-director of the Burke Scholars service and leadership program. He was elected to the Creighton Board of Trustees in 2013. Today, he serves on the boards of Boston College and Xavier University and also is a trustee of the Red Cloud Indian School, Pine Ridge, South Dakota. He was elected president of Creighton in December 2014 and began his tenure July 1, 2015.

Fr. Hendrickson has a special interest in education with a global perspective. His international travel and immersion experiences have taken him to over 30 countries on nearly every continent. He is a trustee of ILAC/Centro de Educación para la Salud Integral (CESI) in the Dominican Republic and a trustee of Jesuit Worldwide Learning (JWL).

Fr. Hendrickson, who grew up in Fremont, Neb., and graduated from Mount Michael Benedictine High School in Elkhorn, comes from a family of educators. His identical twin, the Rev. D. Scott Hendrickson, S.J., D.Phil., is an associate professor of modern languages at Loyola University Chicago, while his older brother, Ryan C. Hendrickson, Ph.D., is dean of the Graduate School and vice provost for sponsored research at Eastern Illinois University.

2018-19 Athletics Highlights

- Creighton student-athletes owned a GPA of 3.39 in the spring of 2019 and own a collective 3.42 cumulative GPA.
- Two teams (volleyball, baseball) reached the NCAA Tournament, giving the Bluejays at least one NCAA team for a 32nd straight school year.
- The volleyball team won both the BIG EAST regular-season and tournament title for the fifth straight season. Creighton finished the season ranked 13th nationally.
- The baseball team won both the BIG EAST regular-season and tournament titles in the same season for the first time. The Bluejays finished the season ranked 22nd nationally by D1Baseball after reaching the Corvallis Regional final.
- Creighton ranked third nationally in men's soccer in average home attendance, seventh in men's basketball, 11th in volleyball and 18th in baseball. Volleyball hosted 14,022 fans at CHI Health Center Omaha on Sept. 6 vs. Nebraska, the largest volleyball-only crowd in NCAA regular-season history.
- Sven Koenig (men's soccer), Jaali Winters (volleyball), Taryn Kloth (volleyball), and Nick Monkemeyer (men's cross country) were named CoSIDA Academic All-Americans.
- Ruth Scott Training Center opened in the spring of 2019, giving women's basketball and volleyball another practice venue.
- Creighton had five alums (Kyle Korver, Anthony Tolliver, Doug McDermott, Justin Patton, Khyri Thomas) play in the same NBA season for the first time.
- Elmar Bolowich retired following a legendary career, and Bluejay Hall of Famer Johnny Torres was promoted to head men's soccer coach.
- The volleyball team made its seventh consecutive NCAA Tournament, earning 12 straight weekly top-10 rankings.

Academic and Athletic Success

- Creighton's student-athletes combined for a 3.39 GPA last spring. The student-athletes also own a 3.42 cumulative GPA.
- The NCAA uses a tool for the evaluation of the academic quality of participating programs. The Academic Progress Report is intended to gauge the progress student-athletes are making to degree completion and graduation. In the spring of 2019, Creighton had four teams post multi-year APR scores in the top 10 percent of all squads in their respective sports: women's basketball, women's cross country, women's golf and women's tennis.
- Creighton owns 51 Google Cloud CoSIDA Academic All-American honors all-time. In 2018-19, Taryn Kloth (volleyball), Sven Koenig (men's soccer), Nick Monkemeyer (men's cross country) and Jaali Winters (volleyball) became the school's latest honorees.
- Creighton had 160 student-athletes make the Dean's List at least one time last year, including 96 student-athletes who earned the honor both semesters.
- Ten members of the Creighton women's basketball team earned a 3.5 GPA or better during the spring 2019 semester.
- Thirty-six student-athletes (14.9 percent) earned perfect 4.0 GPAs during the spring 2019 semester.
- Ten teams (women's basketball, rowing, men's cross country, women's cross country, men's golf, women's golf, women's soccer, men's tennis, women's tennis, volleyball) had team GPAs of 3.30 or better last spring and every team owns a cumulative GPA of 3.00 or better.
- The Bluejay women's basketball squad has earned the WBCA Academic Top 25 Honor eight times in head coach Jim Flanery's 17 seasons at the helm, including 2018-19. Creighton topped the BIG EAST for the second year in a row, placing 14th in the nation with a team GPA of 3.606.

Creighton's Championship Center Features Academic Resource Center

In the summer of 2014, Creighton opened its Championship Center, a facility that will benefit all student-athletes for years to come. Located adjacent to D.J. Sokol Arena and the Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Center, the Championship Center is highlighted by the Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Training Center, the Parker Family Academic Resource Center, the Doug McDermott Player Lounge and the Kyle Korver Courts inside D.J. Sokol Gymnasium, among many other features.

The Parker Family Academic Resource Center features private meeting and study rooms with access to tutors, a computer lab, wireless internet, couches, tables, chairs and many more resources to help Bluejay student-athletes make the most of their time.

Athletic Training

The Creighton University Athletic Training staff works in cooperation with and under the supervision of physicians to provide the best possible care for student-athletes. It has a staff of five full-time athletic trainers, and two graduate assistant athletic trainers. Athletic training students also gain clinical experience as they help serve the sports medicine needs of Creighton student-athletes.

The mission of Creighton University athletic training is to serve as the initial allied healthcare provider for Creighton University student-athletes and to provide access to other healthcare professionals as needed. Services include prevention, assessment, management and rehabilitation of athletic-related injuries and illnesses.

Creighton athletic training is committed to the highest standards of care consistent with the National Athletic Trainers Association Code of Professional Practice and the credentialing statutes of the state of Nebraska.

Athletic Performance

Creighton University student-athletes benefit from year-round strength and conditioning training programs in The Championship Center. The 6,000 square foot state-of-the-art Athletic Performance Center is equipped with 12 Power Lift half-racks that each have inlaid lifting platforms and the EliteForm system. Additionally, the Athletic Performance Center features Uesaka Collegiate Series Bumper Plates, Plae Flooring, Iron Grip dumbbells, and a nutrition and hydration station to provide Creighton student-athletes with the optimal training and recovery environment.

The athletic performance program at Creighton University is designed to help the athletes become strong and powerful. The program combines Olympic lifts, strength training exercises, plyometrics, speed and agility development, flexibility, and cardiovascular regimes. The programs are specifically tailored to each athlete, the sport they participate in and to their individual experience and ability. The goal of the program is to reduce the chance of injury and to help all athletes reach their full potential.

To help maximize athletic performance, each Creighton student-athlete works with the strength and conditioning staff, the sports medicine staff, a certified nutritionist and a sports psychologist, giving Creighton student-athletes all the resources they need to succeed at the highest level.

Credentials

Media covering women's basketball home games, should request credentials at least 24 hours prior to the game.

If time does not permit for passes to be mailed, the credentials may be picked up at the media entrance on the east side of the Ryan Athletic Center. Seating at courtside tables is limited and restricted solely to working media.

Interviews

Gameday player interviews prior to a game are not permitted. Coaches will be available for interviews upon request.

At home, Flanery and requested players will be available via a press conference in the media room.

On the road, Flanery and requested players will be made available upon request.

Bluejay Broadcasts

Josh Peterson, Donny Baarns, Jon Schriner and Rob Simms begin their second season calling home Creighton women's basketball contests, while Glen Sisk will broadcast from the road. Fans can listen to the non-conference Creighton games this season on KZOT 1180 AM, KOZN 1620 AM or KOIL 1290 AM in Omaha. All radio broadcasts will also be carried live online.

Catch the BIG EAST Season on BEDN

The entire BIG EAST Conference season will be available on the BIG EAST Digital Network, save the Bluejays' nationally televised contests on CBS Sports Network, FS1 or FS2.

Photographers

Only accredited photographers on assignment will be issued credentials. Photographers may pick up copies of the game rosters in the media room. No flashes or strobes are permitted. Sidelines are to be kept clear. In accordance with NCAA rules, anyone shooting the game must also stay clear of the marked area six feet behind each baseline.

Media Parking

Limited media parking is available near D.J. Sokol Arena in a lot on the northeast corner of the intersection of 18th and Burt Streets. From that intersection, go north and the lot entrance will be on your right. Media should cross the street and enter through the east side of the building.
